

$65 Free
in Cash Prizes!

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

CAROLINA'S FIRST
TABloid NEWSpaper

4,500 Copies
Distributed In Trade Territory

VOLUME TWENTY-ONE

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1936

NUMBER FORTY-SIX

SWARM OF CANDIDATES AS FILING TIME ENDS

MEMBER OF FIRE DEPT IS BURIED

T. W. Marlowe, 32, member of the Roanoke Rapids Fire Department and city employee, died Monday morning at Duke Hospital after a serious illness.

A short time ago, every member of the Department volunteered to give blood for transfusions and thirteen were administered in an effort to save him.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home, 319 Monroe Street with interment in Roanoke Rapids Cemetery. Members of the Department acted as pallbearers.

A native of Halifax County, Mr. (Continued on Page 4)

Crippled Clinic Here May 20th

The Kiwanis Club Crippled Clinic will be held Wednesday, May 20th, in the basement of the Rosemary Baptist Church from 1 to 4 p.m. with Dr. Cole of Greensboro in charge. All persons knowing of crippled people, particularly children, are asked to bring them to this clinic which is held once a month, for free examination and treatment.

FOR THE HOUSE

EDWARD T. HARRELL, young lawyer of this city, who is one of the eight announced candidates for the Lower House of the General Assembly. Mr. Harrell has been practicing law here for the past three years. He announces on a "For McDonald" platform.

FOR THE HOUSE

PERRY C. MILLIKIN of Halifax, who has announced as a candidate for the House of Representatives subject to the Democratic primary. He was born at Halifax, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Millikin, prominent Halifax farmer, and has lived there all his life. He collected taxes for Halifax County for two years, has been assistant manager of the County Reemployment Office, and under County Agent W. O. Davis was supervisor of the 1933 cotton reduction program. Mr. Millikin has served six years as chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Halifax Methodist Church. Last year he was elected town alderman, leading the ticket. He is half-owner of the Halifax Mercantile Co., enterprising business concern at Halifax.

More Highways For This Section of State

The dusty detour from Roanoke Rapids to Littleton will be treated with calcium chloride this Summer, according to news received yesterday by F. C. Williams from W. C. Woodard, State Highway Commissioner.

Mr. Woodard writes: "I am pleased to advise that I have secured treatment of calcium chloride for your detour from Roanoke Rapids to Littleton; also you can expect contract to be let on Seaboard road in June. The Roanoke Rapids-Littleton project will come up in July. This about takes care of the road situation in your community."

The Seaboard road is the new road from Weldon to Seaboard, (Continued on Page 4)

6 NURSES GRADUATE '36 CLASS

Baccalaureate Services Next Sunday; Commencement Exercises Tuesday

Six nurses, members of the 1936 Graduating Class of The Roanoke Rapids School of Nursing, Roanoke Rapids Hospital, will receive their diplomas at Commencement Exercises to be held next Tuesday, May 19th, at 8:15 P. M. at the Junior-Senior High School Auditorium. The Baccalaureate Sermon will be delivered next Sunday, by Rev. E. B. Fisher, at 8 P. M. at the First Methodist Church of Roanoke Rapids.

Dr. Beverley R. Tucker, of Richmond, head of the department of Neurology and Psychiatry at the Medical College of Virginia, will make the Commencement Address. Dr. Tucker is one of the most distinguished Neurologists in the country. He is considered an authority on many subjects, and has written books and papers which have been widely read. The School of Nursing is to be congratulated upon having such an outstanding doctor to make this address.

The 1936 Class is exactly double that of last year. Its members are Misses: Mildred Evans, of Vaughn, Clyde Butts, of Enfield, Mary Ella Drake, of Jackson, Pauline Vaughn, of Rich Square, Alma Boyd of Loris, S. C., and Vivian Hilton, of Kershaw, S. C. Miss Janie Lassiter is Superintendent of the School.

Directs Landon Drive

KANSAS CITY . . . Oscar S. Stauffer (above), publisher of the Arkansas City Traveler, is the man directing the drive to bring the Republican presidential nomination to Governor Landon of Kansas.

FOR SOLICITOR

W. BERNARD ALLSBROOK

Born in Scotland Neck, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Allsbrook; has lived in Halifax County all of his life; was educated at Oak Ridge Institute and Wake Forest College, graduating at Wake Forest College in 1929. Since 1929 he lived in Enfield and Scotland Neck for three years. He has been practicing law in Roanoke Rapids as junior member of the law firm of Zollicoffer & Allsbrook since October 1932. Since locating in Roanoke Rapids he has been active in the civic and religious life of the community.

His opponent is Wade H. Dickens of Scotland Neck, who has held the office since the Court was created in 1931.

Large Crowd Attends Roberson Funeral

Roy Roberson, 21, died at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital at 5 a. m. Monday morning. One of the largest crowds in recent years attended the funeral services Tuesday afternoon to pay homage to a high type youth who had many friends here. The service was at the Rosemary Baptist Church by Rev. J. E. Kirk with interment in Roanoke Rapids Cemetery.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roberson, three brothers, Harry, Eugene and Kermit; seven sisters, Mrs. Grady Baggett, Mrs. Willie Abhram, Mrs. Fred Allen, Mrs. Jim Reed, Mima, Irma and Louise, all of Roanoke Rapids.

Pallbearers were Clarence Edmunds, Bud Edmunds, Pete Gar-

41 OUT IN LOCAL BATTLES

Filing time ended at 6 p.m. Saturday night and forty one candidates are in the field for county and local offices in Halifax County subject to the Democratic primary on June 6th, just a few days more than three weeks away.

A swarm of candidates filed in the last few days before closing time to make the list one of the largest in the history of the county.

The complete list of candidates printed as filed is:

For State Senate: Julian R. Allsbrook and T. W. M. Long, both of Roanoke Rapids.

For the House of Representatives (two to be elected): Tracy C. Qualls of Hollister, L. W. Leggett of Hobgood, A. M. Atkinson of Enfield, F. M. Taylor of Brinkleyville, John H. Fenner of Halifax, Albert W. Oakes Jr. of Weldon, Edward T. Harrell of Roanoke Rapids, and Perry C. Millikin of Halifax.

For County Commissioner (five to be elected): N. W. Warren, Littleton, J. W. Whittaker, Enfield, J. R. Wrenn, Roanoke Rapids, M. W. Perry, Halifax, W. J. Collier, Littleton RFD, R. H. Arrington, Hollister, W. A. (Buck) Kitchin, Scotland Neck, F. Ray White, Enfield, R. I. Starke, Roanoke Rapids.

For Judge of Recorder Court: Chas. R. Daniel, Weldon, T. Emmett Marshall, Enfield, W. A. Carter, Weldon.

For Solicitor of Recorder Court: Wade H. Dickens, Scotland Neck, W. Bernard Allsbrook, Roanoke Rapids.

For Sheriff: Joe L. Riddick, Scotland Neck, S. C. Crawley, Littleton RFD, S. M. Thompson, Roanoke Rapids, Clyde H. Madry, Enfield, J. L. Bass, Enfield, Harry A. House, Thelma.

For Coroner: T. M. Cooper, Enfield; John B. Zollicoffer, Weldon; Sam Young, Roanoke Rapids.

For Roanoke Rapids Sanitary District (Roanoke Rapids district voters vote for three): W. E. Murphrey, Hugh D. Camp, R. E. Cleaton, Jr., M. H. Hedgepeth, Wm. S. Dean.

Without opposition this time are Meade H. Mitchell of Weldon for Register of Deeds, Henry T. Clark for the County Board of Education and C. M. Dickens for Justice of the Peace in Faucett Township.

WINNERS OF DOZENS ANNOUNCED ON PAGE 6!