

COMING NOVEMBER 11th

The Cutler-Griffin Company, second of the series of four entertainments being presented here this month. This Company will be here next Wednesday night, Nov. 11th, at the High School auditorium. Varied numbers are presented by Everett Cutler, lyric tenor, Helen Griffin Cutler, soprano, violinist and pianist, and Gertrude Greely, pianist and violinist. Ten changes of costume are used with special lighting effects.

2 ROBBERIES MAR QUIET HALLOWEEN

An otherwise quiet Halloween Night in Roanoke Rapids last Saturday was marred by two robberies, an attempted third break-in and theft of a car.

Worst victim of the raids was J. C. Wells, whose grocery store on 10th Street was broken into and all his stock of cigarettes and tobacco stolen, as well as shirts and other merchandise. The thieves broke the front door lock to enter the store.

The ABC Store was again robbed Saturday when a check-up showed 38 pints had been stolen by thieves who broke in the back way.

An attempt was made to enter the store of Batton & Tripp on 10th Street but this was unsuccessful.

The car of F. C. Williams was stolen from in front of his residence on Hamilton Street and later found in another part of the city with the tires flat, gasoline gone and everything movable removed from the car.

Funeral Services For John Wood Held Yesterday

John Wood, 65, a pioneer citizen of Roanoke Rapids, died at his home, 203 Monroe St., at 7 p.m. Monday. He had been in poor health for two years. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 at the First Baptist Church by the Rev. Gordon L. Price. Interment was in Roanoke Rapids Cemetery. His widow and several children survive. Mr. Wood, a textile operative, came here about 25 years ago from Newbern.

OLD SPEAS
BRAND—STRAIGHT
APPLE
BRANDY

PTS. 90c

SPEAS MFG. CO., KANSAS CITY, MO.

MRS HARRIS DIES HERE THIS A. M.

Mrs. Addie Blanche Harris died at her home here at 9 o'clock this morning after an illness of one month. Funeral services will be held at the residence, 1110 Hamilton St., at 3 o'clock this Friday afternoon.

The Reverends J. J. Boone and J. L. Willis will officiate and the pallbearers will be chosen from the stewards of the Rosemary Methodist Church of which the deceased was a loyal member. Mrs. Harris was 59 years old.

She moved to Roanoke Rapids three years ago from Emporia, Va. and after the funeral services here interment will be in the Emporia Cemetery.

Mrs. Harris is survived by two daughters, Miss Fanny Harris, employee of the Roanoke Bank and Trust Co., and Miss Willie Harris, head clerk of the Ben Franklin Stores here.

Three sisters and one brother also survive. They are Mrs. C. T. Johnson of this city, Mrs. Alice Parks of Durham, Mrs. Katie Lassiter of Schoolfield, Va., and Henry O'Neal of Roanoke Rapids.

Mrs. Stewart Wilson spent Saturday in Norfolk.

ANNOUNCING—

Our Studio is now located

UPSTAIRS

Over Shell

Furn. Co.

BRASINGTON

STUDIO

Portraits

Commercial

Finishing

THOMPSON TO HANDLE FORD CARS

The Ford automobile agency in Roanoke Rapids will change hands about the middle of November, when S. M. Thompson will handle the sale and service of Ford, according to reports made public in business circles today.

The present agent, Mr. Harrison, will return to Littleton where he has secured the Ford agency there.

Mr. Thompson, builder and holder of much real estate in this city, was former owner of the ice company here and, in recent years, has been prominent in Halifax County politics.

Official announcement of the new agency will be made by Ford manufacturers in the next few days.

William A. Gray Funeral Held In Northampton Co.

William A. Gray, 65, who died last Thursday at his home near Camps Store, was buried Friday afternoon. Funeral services were preached by Rev. Gordon Price. Mrs. Gray and a daughter survive. He was a brother of Ben Gray of this city, John and Tom Gray of Northampton County, Henry Gray of Richmond, Va.

Halifax Confer'ce

The Halifax Quarterly Conference will be held at the Halifax Methodist Church Sunday, November 8th, at 11 a.m. Preaching will be by the Presiding Elder, Dr. J. M. Culbreth, followed by a business session at which a full attendance is desired.

To Crown Queen At Armistice Night Dance Here

The Milk Fund is getting the proceeds of a popularity contest now being held to decide what young lady will be crowned Queen of the Armistice Day Dance to be given at the Chockoyotte Country Club from 10 until 2 the night of November 11th.

Votes are on sale at a penny per at Rosemary Drug Co. and Matthews Drug Co. here and Seldens Pharmacy in Weldon. The Queen and other contestants will be a feature of the dance with Paul Jones and his Swing Band furnishing the music.

Condition Serious

J. R. Myrick was taken to the Roanoke Rapids Hospital yesterday in a serious condition. He is suffering from erisypalis. Mr. Myrick was recovering from pneumonia and pleurisy when stricken. His condition is reported as very grave.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Evylin Lee Andleton, died November 7th, 1934. November days are here at last—To me they are long and sad. It was on the 7th day, Evylin, You were called away. But, Evylin, it is better there—All your days are bright and fair. Here on earth they are sad and few. When they are over I can live with.

Her mother, Mrs. H. L. Andleton.

You can give her a Larger, Finer Diamond If you select Now, for Christmas

It isn't long until the holidays and if you're contemplating giving a diamond we urge that you make your selection early.

LAND BROS.
"We Give Trade Tickets"

..It's a Better Buy than ever!

We mean Crab Orchard! Older than ever—better than ever!

Every drop aged 18 months—richer, smoother, finer to taste.

Every drop Top-Run whiskey—just like the most expensive.

Every drop straight bourbon from Kentucky.

Every drop full 93 proof—brilliant and warm and good.

And you get this better Crab Orchard at its old low price.

THE A.M.S. DIVISION OF NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS CORPORATION, LOUISVILLE, KY.

85c A PINT
$1.65 A QUART

Crab Orchard
BRAND
Top-run KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

YOUR GUIDE TO GOOD LIQUORS