

LOCAL ARTIST WINNER NATIONAL ART PRIZE

Bill Alligood, designer for Rosemary Mfg. Co., cartoonist and Boy Scout executive, won first prize of $50.00 for the best cover for The Lion, official monthly magazine of Lions International.

The drawing will be used for the cover on the January issue of The Lion. It was selected from hundreds of entries from artists all over the country.

Mr. Alligood submitted two drawings for the January contest and has not been notified which one was chosen. One was a figure looking at the rising sun of 1937 with the words, Lions International encircling the sun; the other, which Bill thinks might be the one selected, showed a small boy reading a copy of the January 1937 issue of The Lion, the cover of the magazine the boy is reading being that of the same small boy reading the same magazine and so on until the disappearance point.

During his spare time, Bill has drawn for The Raleigh News & Observer, the Roanoke Rapids Herald and other publications. This is his first entrance into the national field.

Mrs. Hawley Hostess

The Monday Night Bridge Club was entertained this week by Mrs. Frank Hawley. Stanley White leaves Wednesday for Washington, D. C. to spend the holidays.

Xmas Program At Study Club

Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. Frank Kemp were joint hostesses on Friday of last week to the members of the Study Club, at the home of Mrs. Williams. A most delightful Christmas program was given. A very short business session was held presided over by Mrs. J. N. Bynum, President of the club. In opening the program Mrs. R. P. Beckwith read a Christmas Story; Mrs. Heath Lee, accompanied by Mrs. David Clark, sang two Christmas songs and Miss Ester Pridden gave a reading "The Night Before Christmas" which was very much enjoyed. Following the program an informal hour was spent, at which time refreshments were served. Mrs. J. N. Bynum presided over the tea table. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Kemp were: Mesdames Pendleton Grizzard, Heath Lee, David Clark, C. A. Wyche, Lawrence Clements, R. P. Beckwith, A. Meikle, David Traynham, J. N. Bynum, P. A. Reid, Frank Wilson, Cranford Hoyle, Lawrence Stell and Miss Susan Holliday. Mrs. W. S. Dean was special guest of the Club and Mrs. Hoyle and Mrs. Stell were given a most cordial welcome as new members.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the doctors and nurses of Roanoke Rapids Hospital, especially we wish to thank Dr. Beckwith and Miss Lynche for their faithfulness during the recent illness and death of our beloved baby.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibson.

Mrs. John Walker of Washington, D. C., will be the guest of Mrs. J. M. Grizzard through the holidays.

Irvin Dickens has arrived to spend the holidays with his parents.
