ANOTHER LINK GONE

With the death of D. A. Insko, seated right, near here this week, another link in the once famous Insko chain is gone. This picture shows intact five living generations represented. The first link was broken in September of last year when Mrs. Betty Insko, 96, seated right, died. The late Mr. Insko was her son. Standing are her grandson, F. L. Insko and great granddaughter, Mrs. Clyde Inscoc Reid. The little girl is Hattie Pearl Reid, her great-great-grandchild.

Roanoke Rapids Chapter Red Cross

With an original quota for Roanoke Rapids Chapter of the American Red Cross set at $80 and later raised to five times that amount or $400, and with other calls expected as the flooded areas suffer disease, epidemics and fires, and with the floods sweeping from the Ohio River to the Mississippi River in the worst flood of the nation's history, a goal of at least $1,000 was set tonight by Rev. Gordon L. Price, chairman of the local chapter, which includes Littleton and Aurelian Springs.

As seen on the chart above, the amount reported tonight raised by this Chapter is $713.74. This is $494.37 in the Roanoke Rapids sector and $219.37 reported by Mrs. W. A. Ward, chairman of the Littleton sector.

An intensive personal plea is made to those getting paid off in Roanoke Rapids this Friday to go to a local Red Cross station and make a contribution. It is hoped to reach the thousand dollar mark by Saturday night if this is done. It is hoped a personal drive from person to person will not be necessary, considering the immediate importance. Red Cross officials here have decided to leave this matter to individual generosity and all gifts here have been and will be purely voluntary.
