Almost 100 Young Folks Attend County Meeting

The Halifax County Young Peoples Union met Tuesday night in the Scotland Neck Methodist Church. The meeting was opened with a song and the roll was called. Minutes were read by the secretary, Christine Alston, followed by the business session. Miss Frances Johnson had charge of the devotionals assisted by Rev. D. L. Fouts.

The program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Martha Speight of Roanoke Rapids, a talk on "With Schusitzer In The African Forest" by Harvey Woodruff of Roanoke Rapids. A play on Africa was presented by the Enfield Union. Those taking part were Carlton Stallings, acting as the doctor in the African Forest; Walter Garnett taking the part of a native and Almata Vick acting as nurse. The play was very interesting and the characters were well prepared.

After the program the Scotland Neck Union served tea and cakes to the Union. Games were directed by Janet Rawlings. There were about 90 present. It was decided that all the meetings will be held in Halifax in the future, as it is near the center of the district.

YOU don't have to give this girl a big hand. She is Frieda Schmidt, the champion froth-carrier in New York City's German section, Yorkville, and she can carry seven "steinie" bottles in one hand and seven steins in the other.
