

UP AND DOWN WITH THE The Avenue Editor

The Duke University Glee Club will broadcast over WABC next Sunday, Feb. 28th, at 2:30 until 2:45 p.m. E.S.T. The program will originate in the New York studios, with J. Foster Barnes as director.

Here's one for Ripley. On Washington's birthday here in Mayor Kelly's police court, the prosecuting witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. George Washington. The Mayor, when he asked for the name of the witnesses, was astounded and asked that the name be repeated.

The city lost another White Way standard (rather the Power Co. lost one) yesterday afternoon when Mannie Pair of Skippers backed his truck into the standard in front of Roanoke Rapids Grocery Co. Chased by Chief Dobbins and caught between Camps Store and Pleasant Hill, the negro said he didn't know anything about it, just remembered a bump.

Those having to pay a State income tax may have free assistance from a State Revenue man who will be at the Municipal Building in Roanoke Rapids on March 5th and again on March 12th. Deadline is March 15th for both State and Federal taxes.

Three votes were cast against the Revenue Bill in the Senate this week on the third reading. One of them was that of Senator Long of Halifax, who voted for the sales tax on meals, but in voting against the entire revenue bill later, said, "I didn't vote for it because I'm against the sales tax in principle. I was sent here to represent my people, and I'm confident that if an election were held in Halifax County tomorrow, not one per cent of the voters would vote for the sales tax."

Among out of town patients at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital are Jimmie Crowder of Warrenton, Mrs. James Jones of Warrenton, Miss Hazel Boyd of Seaboard, Mrs. Nora Jenkins of Vaughan, J. D. Lambeth of George, Miss Helen Taylor of Garysburg, recuperating from an appendectomy, W. H. S. Burgwyn Jr. of Woodland, in for an appendectomy.—F. I. Gordon is very ill with pneumonia, tho better today. Jack Fanny is up after a serious illness. Hospital manager T. J. Alford is ill in his own hospital tonight.

Births at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital this week: to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lyles, a girl, Tuesday; to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blanchard, a girl on the 19th; to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Perkinson, a boy, Tuesday; to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Birdsong, a girl, on the 20th; to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harris, a girl, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams and Mrs. Wm. White, on a trip to Florida for the past two weeks, are staying at The Palms, new tourist camp on the South side of Ft. Myers, Fla. Here we spent two delightful days and nights. We can recommend The Palms as the last word in tourist camps. Thirty new houses, a central dining room, or if you prefer to cook your own meals, a grocery store for that purpose. Each house has a private garage. The living room is well furnished with comfortable chairs, a day bed, reading lamps, a gas grate for chilly nights; the bathroom is the last word in complete fixtures, with plenty of towels and hot water; two bedrooms with furniture to match, Beautyrest Mattresses, plenty of closet space; a complete kitchen and dinette, gas range, hot and cold water, gas refrigerator, dishes, cooking utensils, electric toaster and percolator.—The price for the house, for four persons, $1.50 each per day.

Speaking of Beautyrest Mattresses, on which we slept most every night, it is now the fashion for tourist camps and homes to advertise something like this:

The Do Come Inn Beautyrest Mattresses

We bet we saw twenty camps advertising this Simmons product in lighted signs.

Hoard'g Doesn't Pay, Says Farm'r

WILSON, N. C., Feb. 25—(UP)—Hoarding money doesn't pay, John T. Woodard, Johnston County farmer, probably will tell anyone who might be interested. The 70-year-old farmer returned home to find thieves had stolen some $3,000 in "old-time" big currency he had hoarded for the past 25 years. The house had been turned topsy-turvy by the intruders. The money, in $5, $10 and $20 bills, had been secreted in mattresses, tin buckets and tin buckets in a closet. County authorities have been notified.

LOCAL BILLS

counties merely tightens the state law to the effect that one company cannot use the bottle of another, nor individuals either.

The bill to amend the 1935 senate bill relative to the term of office of the register of deeds for Halifax merely corrects a small typographical error in that bill.

Mrs. Betty Acey
