

BOY HIT BY CAR NEAR LITTLETON DIES IN HOSPITAL

James Edward Shearin, 12, died in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital late Friday afternoon from injuries received earlier in the day when his bicycle was struck by a car driven by Harvey Hazelwood of Roanoke Rapids. The accident took place on the highway between Roanoke Rapids and Littleton, near the boy's home four miles from Littleton.

The boy's head struck a hinge on the door of the car, the skull was ripped open and he never regained consciousness. Rushed to the Roanoke Rapids Hospital by Charles Lambeth of Littleton, who happened to pass the scene immediately after, Mrs. Drew Shearin, the boy's mother, and Hazelwood, James was barely alive on reaching the hospital and died three hours later.

Officers who investigated say it was unavoidable. However, a hearing has been set for this Wednesday. Mr. Hazelwood, along with L. A. Ashton and S. G. Quinn, was on his way to Littleton. The boy on the bicycle was on his way home from a nearby country store. The car was traveling at a moderate rate of speed. The boy was riding on the same side of the road as the car. When Hazelwood blew his horn to pass, the boy turned his bicycle in the same direction the car was passing. Hazelwood pulled the car to the left until he was traveling partly on the left shoulder with the boy still in front and then came the accident. All say it happened very quickly after they started to pass the boy on the bicycle.

Funeral services for the boy were held at Enterprise Church at 3 p. m. Sunday with the Rev. G. A. Hendricks officiating.

He is survived by his parents, one brother, D. S. Shearin Jr., two half-sisters and two half-brothers. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Tom, John, Clyde and Willie Myrick, Otis and Harold Walker.

Enfield Junior U.D.C.

On Friday afternoon, at three thirty, the Enfield Blues held its monthly meeting in the home of Hazel Cousins. The meeting was called to order by Miriam Neville and the roll call was by Marjorie Willey. During the discussion of the trip to Raleigh, Vivian Cobb made a short, but interesting, talk on the Soldiers' Home. Julia Rives read an essay on Mrs. Jefferson Davis, after which Elsie Barnhill explained how the U.D.C. originated. Vivian Cobb was elected reporter to replace Idoline Sykes. A picnic was planned.

After the Scholarship Fund was discussed the chapter was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Egbert Barnhill.

Refreshments were then served by the hostess.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their kindness, sympathy extended, and the beautiful floral offerings sent during my recent bereavement, the death of my son, Allen Taylor. Particularly do I wish to thank Dr. Covington, and the students of the Sixth Grade.

LOUD FIREWOOD
IN OLD BOSTON ABOUT 1830, SOLOMON LOUD, INGENIOUS YANKEE, SUSPECTED THE BARBER NEXT DOOR OF STEALING HIS FIREWOOD. HE LAID A TRAP BY BORING HOLES IN SEVERAL PIECES OF FIREWOOD, FILLING THE HOLES WITH GUNPOWDER AND NEATLY PLUGGING THEM UP AND PUTTING THEM BACK ON THE PILE. IN A LITTLE WHILE, A LOUD EXPLOSION IN THE BARBER SHOP NEXT DOOR CONFIRMED HIS SUSPICIONS, AND PUT AN EFFECTIVE END TO WOOD STEALING.
