

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

CAROLINA'S FIRST
TABloid NEWSpaper

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

THURSDAY, Aug. 26, 1937

NUMBER 7

ROSEMARY TO CANADA

SEE PAGE 2, SEC. A

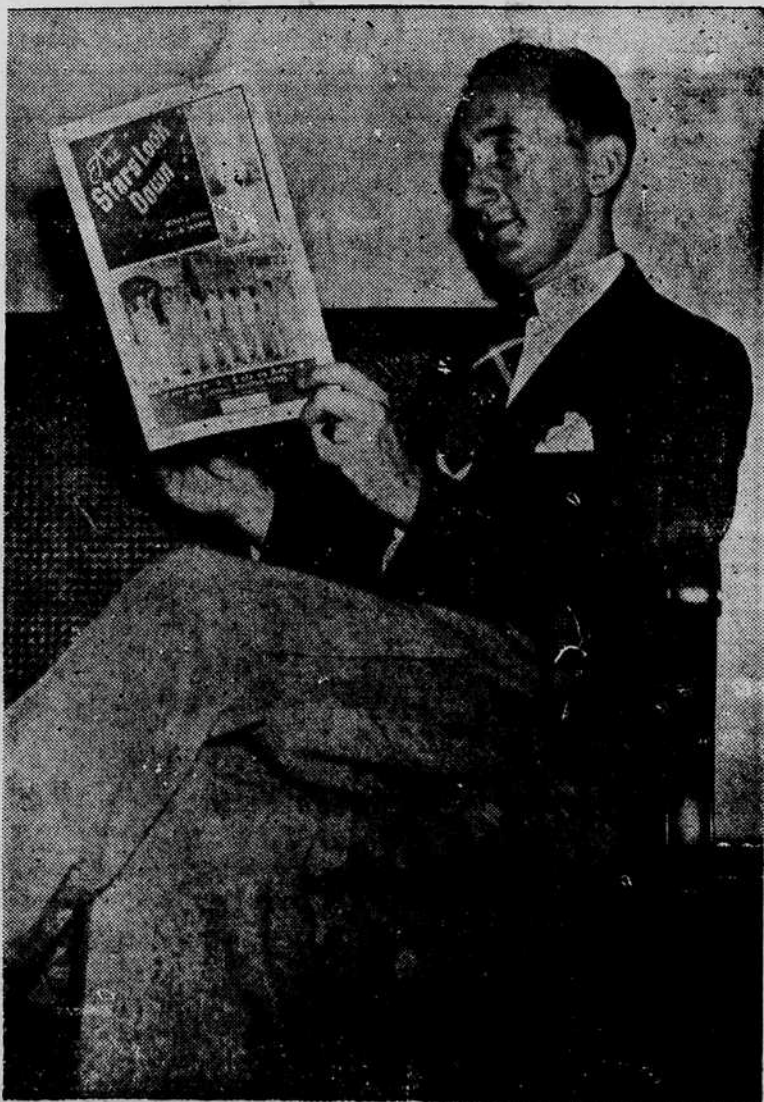

NO. 2 Weavers To Charlotte

SEE PAGE 1, SEC. B

SCHOOL STARTS SEPTEMBER 6TH

SEE PAGE 11, SEC. A

COMPOSES SONG

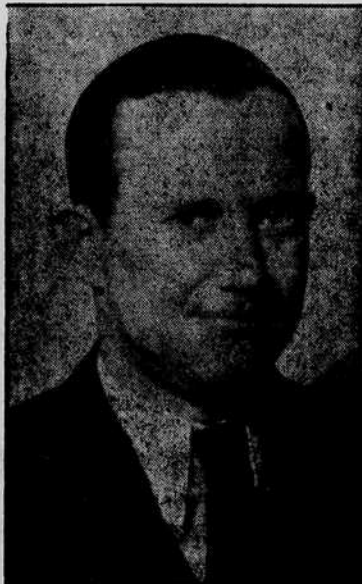

ABOVE is Ellis Farber, son of William Farber, of this city, looking at the sheet music to his new song hit, "The Stars Look Down," in which it is said he has captured the romance of Lookout Mountain, Tennessee, where Ellis and his orchestra are filling their second season's engagement. Complete details of the young composer's new number will be found on Page 9, Section A, this issue. —Cut Courtesy of Chattanooga News

City Man Chosen Zone Chairman By State Lions

ABOVE is Byron Gurley, who was unanimously elected Zone Chairman of Group 3, District 31C of the International Association of Lions Clubs, at a meeting held in Raleigh on Monday, of this week. —COMPLETE DETAILS INSIDE—

PROMOTED

FLETCHER DICKENS
Sales Manager of the Roanoke Rapids District, who leaves Sept. 1st, to enter the Sales Dept. of the Richmond, Va. District of the Virginia Electric & Power Co. His position here will be filled by H. B. (Ted) Speight. (Complete Story Inside).

RIVER RISING FAST DUE TO REACH 40 FEET BY SUNDAY

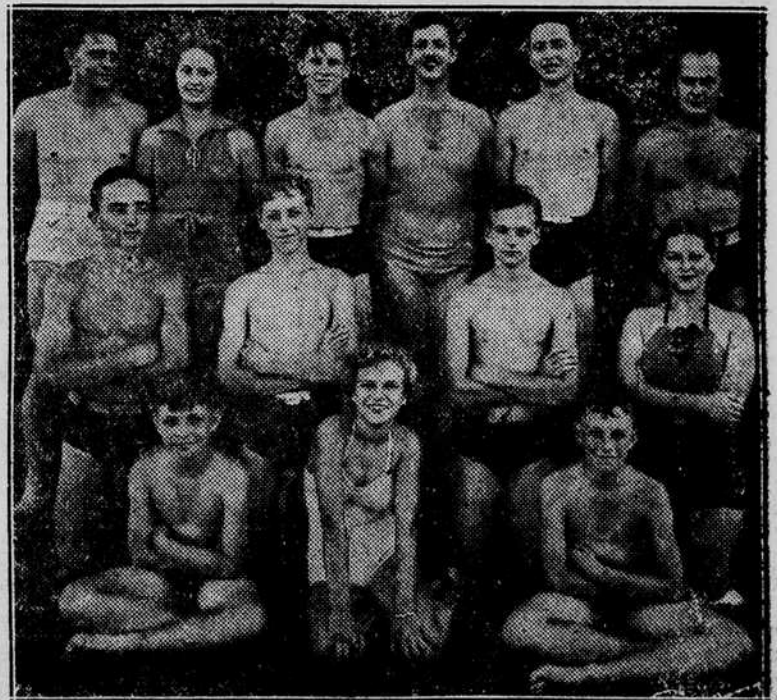

The Roanoke River is rising fast and is due to reach a height of 40 feet at Weldon Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning, according to news received by F. C. Williams here tonight.

This means a 20 foot rise at Roanoke Rapids and the possibility that, if the rise does not subside by Monday, Roanoke Mills No. 1 may not be able to run that day.

The high rise of last year was 43 feet at Weldon. Heavy and steady rains over a period of several days are responsible for the early rise this year. Rain is falling all over the country. The prize fight was postponed tonight on account of rain.

LIFE SAVING CLASS

Sherrod Crumpler Margaret Butler Geo. Wood Roger Cullom Jim Joyner Emory Vaughan

B. Saunders Alma Manning Bill Pruden
(MIDDLE) C. Bennett, F. Joyner, G. Dobbins, Jo Matthews.
(ABSENT) Edwin Akers, Tom Jenkins. (Photo By Brasington)

Above is the Red Cross Life Saving Class of Roanoke Rapids which recently completed instructions and received Life Saving Certificates from Red Cross Instructor Sherrod Crumpler.