Nephew Is Charged In Uncle Attack

Robert Love, 23, was placed under bond by Magistrate W. O. Thompson Monday to answer a charge Dec. 14th of assaulting his uncle, Kenny Love, 55 year old farmer near here.

The assault took place at the latter's home near the Zoo on the South Rosemary road. Uncle and nephew were at the house alone when a quarrel started and the younger man is charged with brutally beating the older man about the face and body.

A son of the elder man tried to get in the house but found the doors locked. He broke thru a window and rescued his father whom he says he found under a bed with his face badly battered.

So. Rosemary Demonstration Club Meeting

South Rosemary Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. M. E. Faison at the home of Mrs. J. B. O'Brian for the November meeting. This meeting which was to be a social, was fashioned a "Gypsy Party" with many club members and guests in costume. First prize for best gypsy costume went to Ann Wood and second prize to Mrs. Dora Hawkins.

Mrs. Robert Parrish and Mrs. Robert Frueler directed the games then refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cook, Mesdames C. T. Johnson, Robert Parrish, Louise Vaughan, Lewis Johnson, Rod Wood, Dora Hawkins, H. M. Faison, Mrs. Garris, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Faison, Mrs. D. P. Wike, Mr. and Mrs. B. Pair, Mr. and Mrs. R.

Mrs. Hudson Clerk At So. Rosemary PO

The South Rosemary Rural station, a branch of the Roanoke Rapids Post Office, is now open for business in the small store building on the East side of the Avenue, about a block North of Daniels' corner. Mrs. Mabel Hudson is the clerk in charge.

Those living in the vicinity can have their mail delivered to this station by notifying Mrs. Hudson or the Roanoke Rapids Post Office. Stamps and money orders can also be obtained at the station.

Yesterday saw the beginning of rural free delivery to the Belmont section and several other minor extensions on the routes from the Roanoke Rapids Post Office.

Miss Beckwith Hostess

Miss Winifred Beckwith was hostess to the Monday Night Bridge Club on Monday of this week; twelve guests made up the three tables of players. Mrs. Carroll Wilson won the highest score for the evening and was presented an attractive handkerchief; a much enjoyed salad course was served at ten thirty. The guests of Miss Beckwith were: Mesdames Julian Allsbrook, W. H. Pruden, Ned Manning, Carroll Wilson, M. S. Benton, R. P. Beckwith, C. L. Carlton, Louise Patterson, Misses Elizabeth Clark, Ruth Transou, Lucille Carlon, and Floriene Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cox and Miss Margaret Cox spent Thursday in Williamston.

L. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Frueler, Misses Reba Faison, Ann Wodo and Josie Johnson.

Daniel - Combs

Miss Mildred Ann Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Basnight Combs of Belhaven, and Jas. Marshall Daniel, son of James Mack Daniel and the late Mrs. Mattie Paris Daniel of Wilson, were married Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church of this city by the pastor, Rev. Lawrence Stell.

Mrs. David Clark, organist, played "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," Liszt's "Liebestraum", and the Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches.

The bride wore a frock of wulrip fern green with accessories of black and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses.

The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for a northern trip. Only members of the immediate families witnessed the service.

Mrs. Daniel is the niece of Mrs. Clyde Martin of this city and has visited here on several occasions.

This Way Please Is On Sunday At Pitts In Emporia

A fine program of stage and screen hits is announced for the coming week at the New Pitts' Theatre in Emporia. The week opens Sunday with the screen hit, "This Way Please" being shown Sunday and Monday. Featured in this hilarious hit are Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Betty Grable, Ned Sparks, Fibber McGee and Molly. Mary Livingstone of radio fame also makes her long awaited screen debut in this picture. She pleases all of those who have heard her and waited to see her in pictures.

Tuesday for one day only another combination stage and screen show will be presented. The stage show is "Hilarities of 1938". On the screen is "Partners in Crime" featuring Lynne Overman and Roscoe Karns.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa

It will soon be time for you to come to see us again. I am a little girl nine years old. I want a writing desk, a typewriter, an Indian suit and a cute doll, and don't forget my fruit, candy and nuts.

Signed,
