Candidate For Re-Election

DR. T. W. M. LONG
who, according to last week's News & Observer and Roanoke News, is a candidate for re-election as State Senator from Halifax County.

CANDIDATE

Julian R. Allsbrook, who announces this week his candidacy for the office of State Senator from Halifax County, the office now held by Dr. T. W. M. Long, who is running for re-election.

Marvin Cook, who has been ill for the past five-weeks with pneumonia, was removed from Roanoke Rapids Hospital to Duke Hospital, in Durham Tuesday, in a W. C. Williams ambulance. He was reported to have been resting well late this week.

Miss Kemp Winner Of Scholarship

Miss Beatrice Kemp, Roanoke Rapids High School senior student, won a Strayer College scholarship, which includes a full secretarial course with all college expenses at the Washington, D. C. school, for scoring the highest award in a competitive examination participated in by students of two counties given last Saturday.

Miss Kemp scored 171 on the test, which is designed to test the general knowledge of the student on all subjects. This score is said to be unusually high, in view of the fact that up to this year the highest score ever made by a high school student was 177, over a wide area in which tests are conducted by the school.

Miss Kemp plans to use the scholarship after graduating from the local high school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Kemp, of this city, one of the leaders of the student body, and is editor of The Ronoko, high school publication.

Harper Holliday, of Wilson, was a business visitor in Roanoke Rapids Thursday.

COMMISSIONER

MAYOR KELLY JENKINS who was this week appointed City Softball Commissioner of Roanoke Rapids by State Commissioner Wade Ison of Charlotte. Commissioner Jenkins, as such, will be the Judge Landis of Softball in the city for the coming season.

LOCAL CLUB STAGES 2-NIGHT MINSTREL FOR DENTAL CLINIC

W. L. Long Directs Gold Mine Project

W. L. Long, former resident of Roanoke Rapids and brother of Dr. T. W. M. Long, had his picture in the Raleigh News & Observer this morning as the Raleigh man who is directing a successful gold mine. He is chairman of the board of directors of the Haile Mining Co., now mining south of Charlotte on lands which have yielded more than $4,500,000 in gold in the past century.

"Rollin' Rhythm", the 8th show of the Roanoke Rapids Kiwanis Club in the past eight years, now in rehearsal for the two night shows, Thursday and Friday, next week, bids fair to be the biggest and best of them all.

This is John B. Rogers latest and newest Minstrel-Revue and is being directed by John (Slim) Hutchings, here for his fifth year. Mrs. Elva Martin is at the piano again and Dot Bennett and his Collegians will play in the orchestra pit to accompany the show. This Rollin' Rhythm Orchestra will also play for a special dance after the Friday night show.

Feature In Kiwanis Show

"WILLIE", the dummy that talks, and his friend, Louis Cranford, who will be among the stars in the 8th annual Kiwanis Club shows here next Thursday and Friday nights. Miss Helen King and Ray Rodgers appear with Willie and Louis in one of fourteen scenes of the big show.

The entire net proceeds of the shows will be used to continue the Dental Clinic which examined 1200 school children here this year and treated 900 of them. Part of the proceeds will also be used in building the outdoor skating rink for children now under construction in front of the High School. Tickets are on sale for both night shows by Kiwanians, members of the cast and school children.

Many new faces will be seen in this year's shows where 125 of Roanoke Rapids' best talent will be used. One of the high-lights will be the Charley-Bergin act featuring Louis Cranford, Helen King and Ray Rodgers . . . to say nothing of Willie himself, the real star of the skit. Pushing a close first is another newcomer to Kiwanis shows in Lucy Hasty, whose renditions of hill-billy singing is breaking up rehearsals. She is ably assisted by Arledge Boyd, Frank Sherry, Virgil McDowell, Alonzo Akers, Helen Dunn and a host of mountain singers, dancers and musicians.

Lawrence Stell will again be interlocutor and will get plenty of help in opening the show from Hugh Horne, Will Nelson, Roland Johnson, Bill Wolhar, Thelma Daughtry, Rufus Vick, Fred Wilmer and Shaker Teele. The dance group for this part of the show is composed of Helen Turner, Jo Balance, Elizabeth Goodfellow, Alice Myrick, Elsie Edwards, Katherine Johnson, Leila Murray and Pat Daniel. Boy dancers are James Rogers, Curtis Butler, James Lyerly, Ed Hyman, Dick Burton, Rudolph Williams, S. D. Brown and John Cox. With another fancy dance group composed of Lois Wallace, Phyllis Brown, Bertha Stansbury, Louise Robinson, Victoria Vester, Doris Louise Edwards, Estelle Braswell and Hazel Greene.

In the Minstrel part, Roland Johnson, Bill Hodges, Ned Man-
