

MORT WHITE'S BASS ENTERED IN PRIZE FISHING CONTEST

A prize bass caught on a fly rod by a Roanoke Rapids man has been entered in the national contest of Field & Stream. The local fisherman, who bids for fame, is Mort F. White, 1304 Hamilton St., manager of the North Avenue Billiard parlor.

On last Thursday, June 23rd, in company with fisherman Robert Braswell and paddler Henry Cashwell, both of whom witnessed the catch, Mort snagged and pulled in from Jones Mill Pond one large-mouth bass weighing seven and one half pounds.

7½ pounds of bass is not unusual in this section of North Carolina, but when you land one in the boat of that size on a fly rod, that is something. It may be a national record.

Mort was using a Parmacheine Belle No. 6, which means something only to flycasting anglers, and after landing the big fish he sent the bug back to the makers of Peck's Bass Bugs with the note that this particular bug had done its duty and deserved a long rest. On the same bug the same day, Mort had also landed another bass weighing nearly two pounds and four bream.

Hold Meeting Calvary Club On Wedn'sd'y

The Calvary Home Demonstration Club met in the club room of the Calvary School June 22nd at 2:30 p.m. There were 13 members present and the meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. J. C. Myrick.

We were glad to welcome a new member, Mrs. Fabius Jones. Each member answered the roll call with the name of a book they would like to read. This being the second time this year that Mrs. Hazel Ervin Wheeler was with us a rising welcome was given her by the club.

The routine business of the club was brought up and disposed of. Mrs. L. King was elected club reporter and assistant secretary. Mrs. Wheeler gave a glowing report of the district meeting held recently in Oxford. Several of our members were fortunate to attend and hear the splendid address by Mrs. Clyde Hoey, who is a close runner up of her silver tongued husband. The next district meeting will be held some time next year with the Franklin County Club in Louisburg.

The County Council meeting will be with the Hollister Club in July and with the Calvary Club in November. These meetings are held every four months and each club takes turns entertaining. It is always a day affair so at noon a lunch is served. Good speakers are provided and a splendid program is enjoyed.

Mrs. Wheeler demonstrated home made articles such as tables, folding screens, book cases, stools, magazine racks, swinging shelves, and a reading table. All very useful, attractive and easily made at home. The recreation period was conducted by Mrs. Harvey Myrick. She led in games and Mrs. Wheeler led in songs.

Mrs. L. King was hostess this month. She served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. H. T. King and Mrs. W. C. Myrick.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again next month at the same time

Mrs. L. King, Club Reporter.

Mrs. R. J. Rightmyer, Ray and Frances Rightmyer returned Sunday from Clearwater, Fla.

Pierce and the late Mr. Pierce of Weldon, were married Saturday afternoon, June 25, at 4 o'clock at the Virginia Heights Baptist Church in Roanoke, Va., with the Rev. Jesse C. Davis officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, evergreens, white gladioli, snap dragons and baby's breath and lighted with cathedral candles. Preceding the ceremony Miss Virginia Pace rendered a program of nuptial music and Miss Nancy Hoback, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" by D'Hardelot and "I Love Thee" by Greig.

The bride was escorted by her father by whom she was given in marriage.

She was attired in a gown of white silk net over taffeta and her long flowing veil of illusion fell from a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and white roses.

Mrs. Wirt Vaughan Warriner, of Farmville, Va., sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Her gown was of aqua net over taffeta. She wore a shoulder length veil to match her dress held in place with a tiny spray of flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of garden flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Katherine Pierce of Weldon, sister of the bride-groom, Miss Elizabeth Thorne of Airlie, Miss Delphie Harris of Oxford and Miss Hermine Carraway of Wadesboro, wore similar gowns of tea rose net over taffeta. They also wore shoulder length veils to match their dresses and carried arm bouquets of garden flowers.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Selden Pierce, of Weldon, and his groomsmen were: Allen Pierce of Weldon, another brother; Alex Johnson and Frank A. Cole Jr. of Weldon and Fred Hoback of Winston-Salem.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home for the wedding party and out-of-town guests. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left for a mid-western wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a frock of navy sheer marquisette with hat and accessories to match. Mrs. Pierce received her musical education at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., and the Westminster Choir School, Princeton, N. J. For two years she was a member of the famous Westminster Choir. For the past year and a half has taught music in the Roanoke Rapids High School.

GOOD RELIEF of constipation by a GOOD LAXATIVE

Many folks get such refreshing relief by taking Black-Draught for constipation that they prefer it to other laxatives and urge their friends to try it. Black-Draught is made of the leaves and roots of plants. It does not disturb digestion but stimulates the lower bowel so that constipation is relieved.

"I KNOW FINER TOBACCO"

NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT—CAMEL BUYS THE FINER TOBACCO. THE PRICES THEY PAY TO GET IT PROVES WHAT I SAY. WHY, TIME AFTER TIME THEY'VE PAID ME MORE FOR MY CHOICE LOTS. THEY DID LAST SEASON TOO. I'VE SMOKED CAMELS EVER SINCE I LEARNED TO GRADE TOBACCO. MEN WHO GROW TOBACCO 'MOST ALWAYS GO FOR CAMELS

MARVIN L. SPEIGHT knows tobacco because he grows it

YOU can't tell the men who grow tobacco that all cigarettes are alike. Year after year, growers like Mr. Speight have seen Camel pay more to get the best lots of their crops. And because they know Camel uses CHOICER, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCO, they say: "We smoke Camels because we know finer tobaccos make finer smoking." Try Camels yourself and see!
