

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

CAROLINA'S FIRST
TABloid NEWSpaper

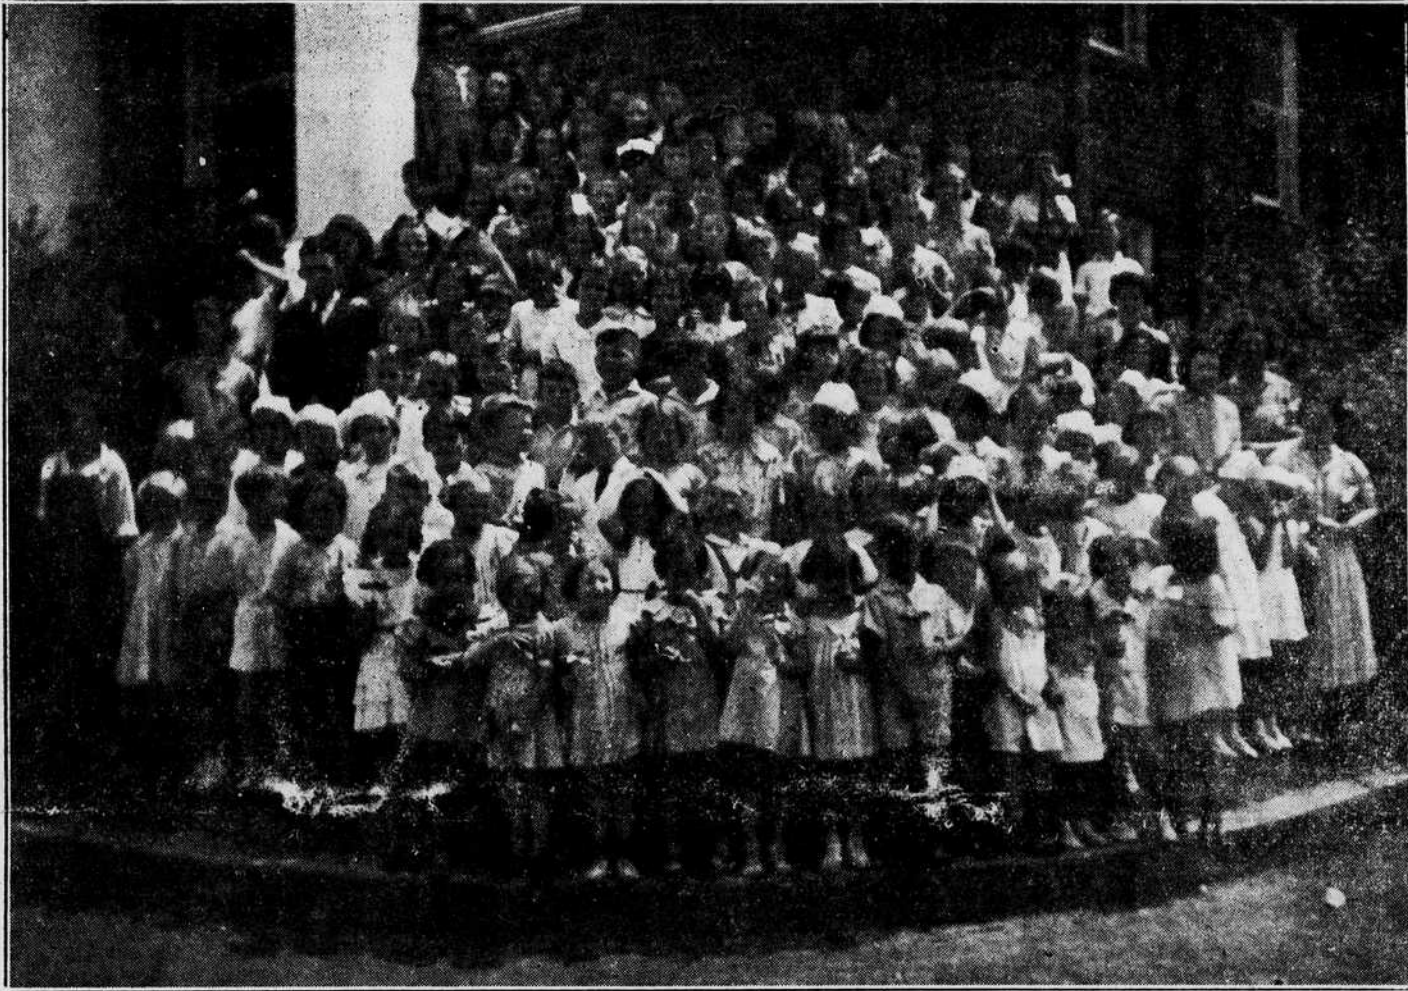

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1938

NUMBER 52

EX-RESIDENT MISSING

HUNT FOR BROTHER MRS. HUX

Charles T. Peters, Now Of Hopewell, Lost In San Francisco

POLICE SEARCH

Brings No Results; Was Attending Kiwanis Convention

Police of San Francisco are still searching for Charles T. Peters, former resident of Roanoke Rapids and a prominent business man of Hopewell, Va. for the past 20 years, who mysteriously disappeared June 27th while attending the Kiwanis International con-

(Continued on Page 4)

188 Enrolled In Vacation Bible School

The Rosemary Baptist Church held a successful Vacation Bible School for two weeks from June 13th to 24th. With an enrollment of 188 and an average attendance of 140 the three departments — Beginner, Primary and Junior — had a full work-and-play schedule each morning from eight-thirty until eleven o'clock. Commencement exercises were held at the close of the school at which time a demonstration of things learned and done by the boys and girls was given. Posters, notebooks and other handwork were on exhibit at the exercises. The vote was unanimous, by both children and congregation, to have another school next year.

Clif Has Big Day at Huntington, W Va.

Clifton Boyd, Roanoke Rapids High School baseball and football star, made the headlines of the Huntington, W. Va. newspapers when he played his first game with that team and aided them material-

BROTHER DROWNED

Allen Britt, 34 years old, of Reidsville, N. C. was buried in the Reidsville Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, July third, at three thirty p.m. Both Presbyterian and Baptist ministers officiated. Mr. Britt died as a result of accidental drowning while swimming at Kure Beach near Wilmington, N. C., Friday, July first.

Mr. Britt is survived by three sisters and four brothers, one of whom is B. F. Britt of Roanoke Rapids, an employee of Roanoke Mill Number two.

TOM CHEEK, former member of the High School faculty, who left Roanoke Rapids several months ago to become a Railway Clerk, has returned to Roanoke Rapids to live. Mr. Cheek is now Clerk on the Atlantic Coast Line, running from Fayetteville to Washington, D. C. He will be on duty seven days, off six. Mr. and Mrs. Cheek moved into the Patterson Apartments this week.

ly in winning over Bluefield 10-9. The headlines read: "New Huntington Short Stop Stars". In the story it says "Clifton Boyd, Huntington's new shortstop, who came here direct from the Boston Bees, stole the show with a pair of home runs. His second circuit cloud in the fifth scored Eastham and O-leks. In the 9th, with the bags filled, Boyd, with his third hit, a single, brought in the winning tally."

His record for the day was two home runs, a single, 4 runs batted in, featuring in a double play, 3 put-outs, 2 assists and no errors.

"HEALING EVANGELIST" HERE

EVANGELIST J. M. CREECH, who is termed the "healing" evangelist, is holding meetings at a tent on Madison St. in Roanoke Rapids. He is shown with crutches which he reports were thrown away by cripples he has cured. (Complete story on page 7, this section).