

NEXT WEEK AT ROANOKE RAPIDS THEATRES

Norma Shearer and Tyrone Power

STAR MARIE ANTOINETTE

For Three-Day Run At The Peoples

The long awaited "Marie Antoinette" with Norma Shearer and Tyrone Power in the leading roles is scheduled for the Sunday-Tuesday showings at the New Peoples. The supporting cast includes John Barrymore, Anita Louise, Joseph Schildkraut, Gladys George and scores of others.

The story has gripping power on the screen because it is so simply told. Miss Shearer's "Antoinette" is a girl eager to be in love and to be loved, who finds herself married to a moronic husband, a role played by Robert Morley, young English actor making his first motion picture appearance. When he fails her and his country through weakness of mind and spirit, she seeks escape in mad pleasures and dangerous flirtations. But in the end, she cannot escape her destiny as the last Queen of France.

"Marie Antoinette" will prove to be thoroughly entertaining. Power is a handsome, gallant and convincing Count Axel de Fersen, the man who dared to love a Queen.

There are moments of great drama and poignant tragedy, but also delightful comedy. Much of the humor is provided by Barrymore, whose performance as the cynical, world-weary King Louis XV, is among his finest.

An ultra-modern story of a "quadrangle" supplants the age-old tale of the triangle in a new bright and breezy comedy.

It is "Three Loves Has Nancy," dedicated to hilarity and moving at a fast pace. It will be presented to the Wednesday-Thursday patrons of Peoples. Janet Gaynor, Robert Montgomery and Franchot Tone offer a brilliant array of talent in the principal roles. Miss Gaynor gives a persuasive and sympathetic portrayal of a small-town girl who is given an insight into the sophistications of New York by Montgomery and Tone, her rivals in love.

The story is that of a flippant novelist who gets into difficulties with a Broadway actress. In an endeavor to escape the overtures of the too eager admirer, he persuades his publisher to send him on a lecture tour of the South. Here he meets Nancy, a small-town girl. Casually inviting her to seek his help should she ever get into trouble in New York, he forgets all about her, only to find her waiting at the penthouse apartment he shares with his friend, the publisher, upon his return. The ensuing complications provide some of the fastest and merriest comedy seen this season.

The supporting cast includes Reginald Owen as a haughty butler, Guy Kibbee, Charley Grapevin, Cora Witherspoon, Grady Sutton, Claire Dodd and Emma Dunn.

Don Ameche and Arleen Whelan expecting you.

will be presented at the New Peoples Friday-Saturday in "Gateway." This Grand Hotel idea based on Ellis Island presents numerous types who wish to immigrate to the United States.

Aboard ship Don Ameche leads Arleen Whelan into an innocent but thrilling temptation which culminates in a scandal that threatens to bar the immigrant girl from the United States. The girl, along with a much divorced woman suspected of moral turpitude, a political refugee, a radical, a gangster, a peasant family and Ameche, who contrives to have himself included, are detained for examination. As incidents portraying the heatbreak, joy and tragedy of those who either permitted or denied entry into the country ensue, during which Gregory Ratoff, Binnie Barnes, Gilbert Roland, Maurice Moscovitch, Fritz Leiber and Eddy Conrad appear to the film's advantage, Ameche dedicates himself to securing permission for Miss Whelan to land. Trying to clear the girl he now loves and save her from marriage to a worthless cad, he messes things up. But in preventing the escape of a gang of deportees led by John Carradine, he wins the gratitude of Commissioner Harry Carey and the sympathy of the girl who in marrying him automatically becomes an American and entitled to all the country's legal liberties and privileges.

Rosemary Methodist Young Womans Society

The Young Woman's Missionary Society of the Rosemary Methodist Church will meet at the church Monday evening, October 3rd, at 7:30 o'clock. Remember we are expecting you.

Joint Hostesses

At the home of Mrs. W. C. Williams on Thursday evening a lovely bridge party was given by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Octavus Griffin at which time twenty-eight guests were engaged in a delightful game of progressive contract. Tallies distributed as the guests arrived designated places for playing. When the scores were collected Mrs. George Hayes was found to hold the highest score and was presented a double deck of cards. Miss Kathryn Wolhar was given perfume as winner of the floating prize. A lovely and much enjoyed salad course was served at ten thirty. Throughout the house fall flowers were used most effectively. The players were: Misses Virginia and Betty Gates, Hazel Cobb, Frances Sharpe, Sara Cannon, Thelma Garris, Frances Newsom, Hazel Whitehurst, Martha Carson, Omara Daniel, Ada Edwards, Mary Hix, Otelia Vaughan, Kathryn Wolhar, Harriett Forbes, Kathleen Perry, Ruth Dean, Josephine Carthy, Marjorie Cannon, LeGrand Elliott, Martha Craddock, Hart Sheridan, Virginia and Alma Blount, Mesdames Larkin Brevard Brown, George Hayes, Thelma Daughtry, and Loftin Moody.

Woman's Club Plans Attractive Program Oct. 3rd

A very attractive program has been planned for the Woman's Club social afternoon which will be at 3:00 p.m., Oct. 3rd, at the club building. As the purpose of this meeting is to inject enthusiasm and spirit into the organization, every member is asked to make a special effort to be on hand and to bring with her someone who is unacquainted with the Club or someone who may have lost a former contact with it. It is hoped that these may become interested and join some of the various departments. Please come to meet old friends and to gain some new ones.

Baby Daughter

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom, at Norfolk General Hospital, Norfolk, Virginia on Saturday night, September 24th. The baby has been named Harriet Gail Bloom.

Mr. Bloom is local manager-proprietor of Bloom Bros. Store. Mrs. Bloom is a former native of Norfolk.

Mrs. Ernest Lookabill returned to Thomasville Saturday.
