

GET READY FOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Series Of Parties

A series of three parties were given one on Thursday evening, one Friday evening and one Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jimmie Curran when Mrs. Curran and Mrs. Beaman Helms jointly entertained with bridge. Bowls of lovely fall flowers were effectively placed throughout the living room, dining room and den where the tables were arranged for the players. A color scheme of green and white predominated in the refreshing ice course which was served. Attractive tallies were given the guests as they arrived to direct them to their tables and partners. The prize winners for Thursday evening were Mrs. Colan Womble high and Mrs. Bill Carter low. Mrs. S. E. Purdue was guest of honor at this party and was remembered with a gift.
