

JAX BEAT TARBORO 21-7 AS BURTON'S PASSING FEATURES

The Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets met a heavy Tarboro High School club Nov. 11, and wrenched a 21 to 7 victory from them.

In the first half of the game the Jax allowed the Tarboro backs to break away for long gains. Tarboro recovered a fumbled punt and after a series of hard drives, Stricklein of Tarboro, plunged over for Tarboro's score. Another plunge accounted for the extra point. The Jax were able to drive within scoring distance of the goal but were unable to push it across. Another fumbled punt almost paved the way for a second score by Tarboro, but the Jax managed to hold.

With the score 7 to 0 against them, the Yellow Jackets came back with a charging offensive attack that drove the Tarboro club back to their own goal in the third quarter. A short, quick pass from Burton to Bennett gave the Jax their first tally. The extra point was scored by another pass from Burton to Bennett.

For the rest of the game the Jax played one of the best games of the season. Mills intercepted a pass on about the thirty-five yard line and ran it over for the Jax second score. The extra point was made by Wright on a line buck. Burton carried the ball on an off tackle play for the Jax third touchdown. A short pass thrown by Burton to Brown scored the extra point.

Burton, one of the Jax' outstanding threats of the day, threw five passes during the game and every one hit the mark. Three of them were for scores, one netting a touchdown and two getting extra points. Burton also made several nice gains around the flanks. Bennett, who received the majority of Burton's heaves, was another big factor in the Jax victory. Mills came back into the game during the last quarter to rip holes in the opposition. Byrd was outstanding in his work at end.

The entire squad played a much better brand of football in the second half.

S. Hawkins Party Success

The crowd was there, so many that it was impossible to seat them; also there were all the characters in Al Capps' "Li'l Abner". The crowd enjoyed every minute of the "Dogpatch Revue" featuring Chester Allsbrook as Pappy Yokum, Helen Stewart as Daisy Mae, Virgil McDowell as Marring Sam, Howard Pruden as Black Rufe, Beef Hoggard as Hairless Joe, Bill Allgood as Abijah Gooch, Mabel Allsbrook as the Strange Gal, Nora Wright as Mammy Yokum, Wautola McLean as Mrs. Hamfat, Bryant Gray as Mr. Hamfat, Ronald Everette as Li'l Abner.

After the skit was presented the Dogpatch beauty contest was held. Miss Hazel Higson won the girls' first prize as a very charming Daisy Mae. Mr. Chester Allsbrook won the men's prize as a perfect Pappy Yokum. Dancing was then enjoyed until 12 o'clock. The highlight of Sadie Hawkins night was the arrival in front of the Recreation Club of Marring Sam on his mule. Jay Sanders did a swell job with the lighting effects for the skits.

Parcel Post Jubilee Is Celebrated

"The amazing history of parcel post reads like a fiction story," said Postmaster L. G. Shell, in connection with the Post Office Department's celebration of November as the Silver Jubilee of the establishment of this important branch of the Postal Service.

"Parcel post is the greatest extension of postal facilities in world postal history. The Founding Fathers of this Government, 150 years ago, must have had a remarkable vision of the future when they adopted a resolution in the Continental Congress authorizing the postmaster general to "fix such rates per pound weight as he may judge will be most likely to induce persons to send such packets by post."

"By 1910 modern life had developed a demand for a universal, low-rate postal service which made inevitable the enactment by Congress in 1912 of the law establishing our modern parcel post. From the day it started, parcel post won increasing public favor," Mr. Shell said.

"By the time parcel post was inaugurated, January 1, 1913, the former miniature postal system of the United States, of 1789, with only 25 post offices, less than 100 employees and receipts of not quite $25,000, had grown to be the largest single business in the entire world! Yet in the 25 years since 1913, parcel post has leaped to second place in the United States postal revenues. In the number of parcels handled annually, parcel post exceeds the total mail of all classes of certain foreign countries.

"Historically, our mails were first opened to merchandise in Lincoln's time, for 'seeds, bulbs, slips, and cuttings.' Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock inaugurated the modern service, John Wannamaker, famous merchant and former postmaster general (1889-93), mailing the first package at Philadelphia, some souvenir spoons to President Taft."

"The expected package is a thrill," said Mr. Shell. "The surprise package is a climax! Make use of the parcel post service!"

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Taylor, Mrs. Hazel Rook and son, James Morris, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lamberson were guests of Mrs. A. H. Pearson at Bracey Sunday.
