

RUBY COOK, PAPER MILL EMPLOYEE, IS BURIED TUESDAY

Ruby H. Cook, 32 year old employee of Halifax Paper Co., died suddenly here Sunday morning of heart failure.

He was on the morning shift from 7 until 3 and had an attack about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. A fellow employee took the fainting man to the Roanoke Rapids Hospital where he died in about 15 minutes. So far as known he had never suffered from a previous heart attack.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from his brother's residence at Gumberry with interment in the family cemetery there. Pallbearers were the following fellow employees of Halifax Paper Co.: Bruce Rook, W. P. Adkins, Thomas Clary, George Delphenthal, William Aycock and Joe Jolly. Flower girls were Misses Estelle Drewette, O'Neil DeLoach, Eva Gibson, Mrs. Maud Higgins.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sadie Birdsong Cook, a brother, R. C. Cook of Gumberry, and a sister, Mrs. Carpenter of Gumberry. The deceased has lived in Roanoke Rapids for the past 18 years, the last 15 of which he was employed at the Halifax Paper Co.

Mother Of Mrs. Bunch Dies Here

Mrs. Carrie S. Faison, wife of the late V. A. Faison, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Bunch, 600 Hamilton Street, Wednesday night. Mrs. Faison had been in declining health for over a year.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. W. G. Bunch, Roanoke Rapids, and V. A. Faison, Jr. of High Point N. C.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Spring Hill Church near Waverly, Virginia, Friday at two o'clock. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The pallbearers will be nephews of the deceased.

that they are forced to seek larger quarters, and that they will soon announce the opening of a "bigger-better" store for Roanoke Rapids.

The present Bloom Bros. store was established at 1006 Roanoke Avenue on August 16th, 1935, and has enjoyed a continuous growth under the capable management of Harold Bloom, youngest of the brothers, as is evidenced by their intended expansion. The name of Bloom Bros. has been a familiar one in retailing in this section since 1912.

Mr. Bloom states that their larger store will enable them to carry a greater stock and wider variety of merchandise in all lines, and that it is their intention to add materially to the departments and merchandise now carried.

The Removal Sale starts Friday, March 24th, at 9 a.m. and features store-wide reductions, as the company explains they would prefer to close out their present stock of merchandise and move into the new store with all new goods. Mr. Cook, of the merchandising service department of Richmond Dry Goods Co. arrived here the first of the week to assist in the promotion work in connection with the sale.

Monroe Starke and Carlton Cannon returned to Chapel Hill Monday.

DALLAS COLLINS FUNERAL IS HELD HERE SUNDAY AFT

Dallas Collins, 58 years old, native of this section of the county and one of the pioneer residents of Roanoke Rapids, died Saturday morning at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital after several weeks illness.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church by the Rev. Gordon Price. One of the largest crowds in recent years attended the services. Interment was in Roanoke Rapids Cemetery. Pallbearers were Tom Bael,

A. B. Tudor, John Baird, Paul Harris, Jack Lipscomb and W. N. Underwood. Members of the Baraca Class acted as honorary pallbearers.

Mr. Collins is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sally Collins, two sons, Joe and Hubert, Washington, D. C. and three brothers, Ben Collins, Weldon, Bill Collins, Siler City, and Emmett Collins, Alabama.

The deceased was for many years a valued employee of Roanoke Mills Co. No. 1.

FREE WEST'GHOUSE COOKING SCHOOL TO BE HELD HERE 4th

A free cooking school, with actual demonstrations taking place on the stage; an expert home economist in charge, and an attractive list of free prizes, will be held at the High School Auditorium here Tuesday, April 4th, at 2:30 p.m., through the co-operation of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, and the Virginia Electric and Power Co., it was announced today by Ted Speight, local sales manager for Vepco.

This will be the first cooking school with actual demonstrations taking place on the stage, to be held in Roanoke Rapids for the past five or six years, and it is anticipated that interest will run high in the demonstrations. Preparations are being made to take care of large crowds, and every housewife in this vicinity is invited to attend the school without the slightest cost or obligation. In fact, the large number of free prizes to be offered those attending is an inducement few housewives can afford to pass up.

Miss Elizabeth Lake, Chief Home Economist and Dietetics Expert for the Middle Atlantic District of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. will be in charge of the cooking school here.

Miss Lake brings with her a most comprehensive background in the Home Service and Household Management field. After graduation from the State University of Iowa, Miss Lake began a career of diversified activities that has given her an exceptional background of experience and training, a background that has particularly suited her for the position she now holds.

Miss Lake has recently enlarged upon her previous knowledge and experience by completing an intensive and highly specialized course of training under the direct supervision of Mrs. Julia Kiene, Head of the Home Economics Department of the Westinghouse headquarters in Mansfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Mamie Modlin and son of Norfolk, Va. spent the week-end with Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Gorman of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Browning.

SETTLE LOCAL CASE JOHNSON VS VEPCO IN SUPERIOR COURT

Halifax Superior Court is in Civil session this week with Hon. Walter J. Bone Judge presiding. The following cases had been disposed of yesterday:

Charles T. Johnson and wife, Josephine O. Johnson vs Virginia Electric & Power Company. Pending trial of the case the matters in controversy being compromised and settled the following judgment was entered. It appearing to the Court that the matters in controversy have been compromised and settled it is therefore ordered, considered and adjudged that the defendant pay the costs of court other than those which have already been paid by the plaintiff and the witnesses subpoenaed by it and that the plaintiff pay his own witnesses. It is further ordered and adjudged that the easement executed by Chas. T. Johnson and Josephine O. Johnson, his wife, to the Virginia Electric and Power Company dated May 21, 1938, recorded in Book 480 at page 120, with blue print attached, be and the same is hereby declared to be a valid and binding easement conveying such title to the right of way as specified in easement.

J. A. Crawley vs Howard Johnson. It appearing to the court that Robert T. Kirkland, attorney for the plaintiff, made motion at the succeeding term of Superior Court for dismissal of the appeal to Superior Court due to the fact that the appeal was never perfected and that said cause has been placed on calendar for motion to dismiss and has been continued until this term of court, wherefore upon motion of the attorney for the plaintiff it is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the appeal of the defendant be dismissed.

William R. Harvey vs Mildred F. Harvey, granted a divorce.

W. A. Kime vs J. W. Johnston and wife, Rebecca Johnston. An issue was submitted to and answered by the jury as follows: In what amount if any, are the defendants indebted to the plaintiff? Answer: None. It is therefore by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff recover nothing of the defendants and that the costs hereof be taxed against the plaintiff.
