

2 CONFESS THEFT OF MONEY FROM CAR COMPARTM'T HERE

Police reported last night they had obtained confessions from Carl Haislip and Red Vaughan, two Roanoke Rapids youths, who they say admitted the theft of a sum of money taken from a locked compartment in the car of D. L. Wheeler here Monday night.

The car was parked in front of a house at the corner of Roanoke Avenue and 4th St. where Mr. Wheeler visited for less than a half hour. Returning to his car, he discovered the glove compartment had been broken in and robbed of about $80 in cash and a number of checks.

He notified police who started on the trail of various ones suspected of robbing cars in the city. They picked up the trail of Haislip and Vaughan at the Blue Bird, traced them to Weldon, the State Line, Skippers and Emporia. There the trail was lost temporarily. Police in Petersburg and Richmond were notified.

Last night, the two boys returned to Roanoke Rapids and a half hour after their return sent word to the police where they were, after learning they were being sought. After their arrests they would admit nothing, but today they told the officers they had taken the money and burned the checks. They went to Skippers, Emporia, Richmond and Norfolk, according to their story. Police went to the place on east 4th Street where the two said they burned the checks and found the ashes where they had been burned.

Evidence of their having spent money freely was also unearthed by the officers along the route the two had taken Monday night.

Chief Dobbins again warns all persons to lock their cars when parking.

Editor Roanoke Rapids Herald, Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

Sir: The local talent of Roanoke Rapids is indeed remarkable, while theatricals are rather a side line in my life it must be said that on last Friday evening, March 17th, a most enjoyable two hours were spent in being highly entertained by the splendid musical show given by the Kiwanis Club of this city.

Most unusual were the various acts. Many were comical, some were romantic, others were filled with wit and humor, while the fine voices and the good music seemed to hold a large audience spell-bound.

The circus feature was unique, the different animals were represented by the male actors. Often two or three men were required to form the larger animals.

One would suppose a little boy five years of age would find enchantment in these man made animals. Not so my little five year old grandson. On his return from the show he was sent at once to bed, but not of sleep for we overheard the most animated monologue on the subject of "Pretty Girls". Must be a masculine weakness. Well, the ladies do love to have admiration—they always did. Taken as a whole the play was very, very good, and best of all the proceeds will be used for a most most worthy cause.

Congratulations, Kiwanis Club, and most praiseworthy the local talent.

Mrs. Ruby Sims Rudd, Richmond, Va.
