

5x7

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

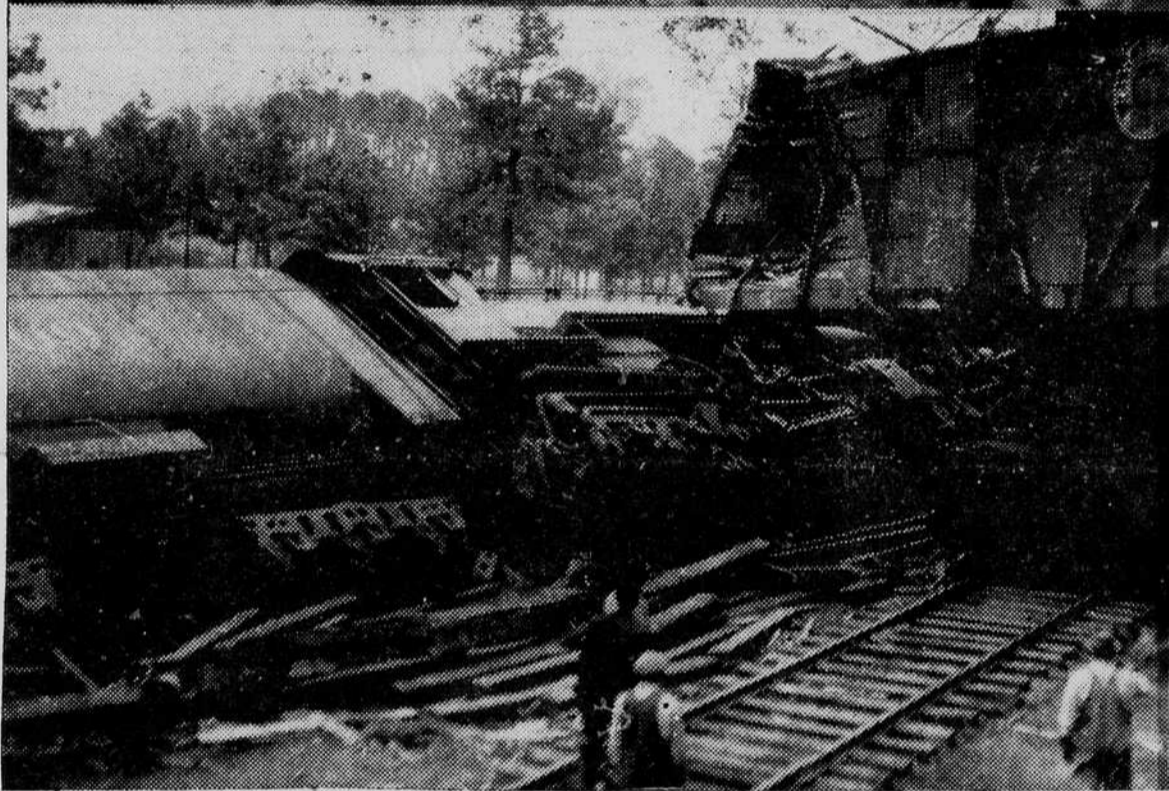

CAROLINA'S FIRST
TABloid NEWSpaper

VOLUME TWENTY-FOUR ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

THURSDAY, APR. 6, 1939

NUMBER 39

Train Wreck!

Exclusive Herald scenes of the train wreck near here Saturday morning when a huge Seaboard engine and 27 cars were derailed as the train ran thru an open switch. Officers are searching for clues of who threw that switch. The engineer is in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital with a broken leg. Wreck details inside.

Candidates

KELLY JENKINS
attorney of Roanoke Rapids and present Mayor who announced today he would stand for re-election as Mayor in the city election to be held on Tuesday, May 2nd.

OVERSEER

SHEAROD CRUMPLER
who this week assumed his new duties as Overseer of Carding at Roanoke Mills Co. No. 2. Crumpler is a Roanoke Rapids product, having lived here since a small boy, graduating from the Graded and High Schools of Roanoke Rapids.

BERNARD ALLSBROOK
attorney of Roanoke Rapids and present City Commissioner who announced yesterday for Mayor of Roanoke Rapids at the city election to be held Tuesday, May 2nd.

Bob and Lyle

Lyle M. Wilson, manager of Roanoke Rapids Theatres and President of Theatres Owners Association of North and South Carolina is shown in Washington, D. C. Monday with Robert Montgomery, famous movie star who is President of Actors Equity. The two were in Washington this week to appear before the subcommittee of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Neely Bill. Committee hearings will continue next week. Montgomery created a sensation among stenographers and secretaries on Capitol Hill. They mobbed him for an autograph. (Exclusive Herald Photo)

JOHN C. SMITH
who today filed his candidacy for City Commissioner from the South Ward. There will be two vacancies on the board from this ward to be filled at the May 2 election. Commissioner Allsbrook has resigned to run for Mayor and Commissioner E. B. Manning has moved to the North Ward.

