

LITTLETON NEWS

Miss Ertie Boyd Warren, a member of the Jackson High School faculty, has returned to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Person left Saturday morning for Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Macon Moore, Jr., and little daughter, Nancy, spent the week-end in Norlina.

Miss Mary J. Spruill is spending a few days in Enfield with Miss Virginia Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. P. Pippen left Tuesday for Raleigh. Mr. Pippen is a delegate to the men's convention of the Episcopal Church. While there they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rosenthal.

Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Justis were guests of Mrs. J. W. Justis in Midlothian Sunday.

C. N. Riggan of Norlina is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris motored to Richmond Sunday.

Miss Hazel Insoe was a guest of Miss Polly Perry in Halifax Saturday.

Jesse Wood has returned to Baltimore after spending a week in his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Crawley of Wilson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Warren Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Alexander and Miss Annie D. Alexander spent the week-end in Scotland Neck.

Mrs. Ike Rochelle of Roanoke Rapids is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey.

Miss Mary Emma Smith spent the week-end in her home here.

Mrs. C. B. Austin was a week-end visitor in the home of Mrs. H. C. Smith.

Mrs. Eugene Gay of Jackson recently visited Miss Hattie Spruill.

Lieut. and Mrs. W. J. Crocker of the C.C.C. and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crawley spent Sunday in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Taylor and Miss Mary Lou Taylor left Wednesday for Vaughan where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Riggan and children of Warrenton were visitors in town Sunday.

Jesse Wood, Jr., of Williamston spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wood.

Mrs. K. C. Cheves of Jacksonville is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Warren.

Miss Annie Tucker Moore of the Franklinton High School faculty has returned to her home here for the summer.

Mrs. Claud Alston, after receiving treatment in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris of Richmond were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Price and son of Washington were guests of J. L. Price this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Salmon and Miss Frankie Price spent Monday in Roanoke Rapids.

Miss Cora Butts of South Hill, Virginia, has recently been a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Bobbitt.

Brantley Acree spent the week-end in Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. House and family, of Thelma, visited relatives in town Saturday.

Mrs. Fuller Robinson and Mrs. June Collier were guests of Mrs. W. N. Thornton Saturday.

Miss Maryleen Cole entertained a few of her friends at a birthday party Saturday evening from eight to eleven. After several games of bridge and Chinese Checkers, cakes, nuts and cream were served to the following guests: Misses Ruby and Ruth Topping, Marie Taylor, Gertrude Edgerton, Sally Ann House, Messrs. James Leach, Bobby Patterson, Billy Palmer, Bobby Jones, James Myrick and Jack May.

The American Legion met with Miss Fannie Newsom Friday afternoon at half after three o'clock. Plans for Memorial Day and the sale of poppies were discussed.

The annual Recitation-Declamation Contest was held on the evening of May 3, in the High School auditorium. Those receiving awards in the contest were: Misses Velma

Barnes, Julia Cook, Mary Shields Justis, Evelyn Newsom, Messrs. Billy Palmer, Edward Moseley, Bobby Jones, Robert Myrick, Billy Perkinson, Durwood Williams, and Robert Thomas Currin. Billy Palmer was awarded two letters; one in the debating contest and one for athletics. Edward Moseley was awarded the silver cup for the best all around athlete.

The following were re-elected to the Littleton High School faculty for the next term: Mrs. Rosa Hamilton, 1st grade; Miss Bonnie May Hall, 2nd grade; Miss Claire Benthall, 3rd grade; Miss Estelle Isles, 4th grade; Miss Jean Parker, 5th grade; Miss Mabel Stroupe, 6th grade; Miss Louise White, 7th grade; Miss Annie Boyd Morecock, Mr. Steve Acai, Mr. A. W. Parker and Miss Sue Sewell, high school teachers. Mrs. E. L. Crawley was re-elected teacher of music and Mr. G. E. Crawley continued as Superintendent. Several of the teachers did not apply for re-election.

Miss Constance Ballance is making her home temporarily with Misses Elizabeth and Carrie Helen Moore on Mosby Avenue.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

Mrs. E. Leslie Crawley presented her students in a piano recital Tuesday evening, May 2, in the high school auditorium. Pine trees on which grew all shapes, sizes and colors of balloons furnished a colorful as well as an interesting background which consisted of well known compositions. Variety was added by two piano numbers and choruses. As always, reflecting excellent training by Mrs. Crawley, each student showed proficiency, ease and accomplishment.

LETTERS from Our Readers

Letters should be short and to the point. Their content does not necessarily express the views of the newspaper. However, we welcome short letters of expressions on any matter of general public interest from any Herald subscriber. All must be signed.

University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill, N. C.
Department of Physical Education and Athletics

April 19, 1939

Mr. T. J. Alford
President, Kiwanis Club
Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

Dear Mr. Alford:
This letter is to thank you formally for the fine hospitality and splendid arrangements in connection with our game with Wake Forest at Roanoke Rapids yesterday. You folks really did an excellent job and we appreciate it very much indeed. I wish you would express our thanks to the other members of your committee and to the Lions Club.

We are looking forward to an invitation for a return visit and you may be assured that we shall be very receptive.

Again thanking you and with all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
G. E. Shepard,
Asst. Director

Wake Forest College
Student Government
Wake Forest, N. C.

April 19, 1939

Kiwanis Club
c-o Mr. T. J. Alford, President
Gentlemen:

May I take this means and opportunity to express to your lively organization my heartfelt appreciation for the splendid gift which you bestowed upon me during yesterday's contest? I shall always endear your kind generosity.

Also, I congratulate your progressive organization upon the marvelous way in which it joined to promote yesterday's program. The enthusiasm displayed by your hustling group is surely representative of Greater Roanoke Rapids in its efforts to meet the needs of its populace. Never, in any undertaking, have I witnessed such splendid cooperation.

Coach John Caddell, his boys, and Wake Forest supporters everywhere—and I am sure Carolina fans share this gratitude—express their delight in the fine and true sportsmanlike manner in which they were received and entertained. We are hopeful that yesterday's festivities may become an annual event in your fine city and mine.

With cordial best wishes to you and yours and for a progressive year, I remain

Very truly yours,
Irvin Dickens.

Halifax County
Board of Alcoholic Control
Halifax, N. C.
May 5th, 1939

The Herald
Roanoke Rapids, N. C.
Gentlemen:

For the benefit of the taxpayers of the County we turned over the County Commissioners the sum of $15,000.00 of A.B.C. funds on the first Monday in May. This amount makes a total of $200,000.00 of A.B.C. money turned over to the County Commissioners since the beginning of County Control in July, 1935.

Yours very truly,
Halifax County Board of Alcoholic Control
E. H. Ricks, Supervisor

Dr. John W. Martin spent Wednesday in Richmond on business.

Mrs. Henry G. Ruark of Tarboro spent the week-end here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jenkins.

Mother's Day At Littleton Methodist Church

Sunday is Mother's Day. In the morning, at the Littleton Methodist Church, there will be special music and an appropriate sermon followed by the Holy Communion. At 8:00 p.m. there will be the second in the series of 50 beautiful Pictures of the Mission Fields. This one is "Christian Dawn in Korea."

The services Sunday will mark the beginning of the new Methodist Church formed by the uniting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, with a membership of nearly 8,000,000 and a constituency of about 20,000,000. The entire membership at Littleton is urged to be present and the general public is cordially invited.

W. T. Phipps, Pastor.

Carty - Cannon

The following announcement will be of much interest here and at Belhaven. Mr. Abner West Carty of Belhaven announces the engagement of his daughter, Josephine Carty, to Claude Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cannon of Roanoke Rapids, the wedding to take place in a private ceremony in June.

Orphanage Class At Pentecostal

A class from the Falcon Orphanage of Falcon, N. C., will have charge of the morning service at the Rosemary Pentecostal Holiness Church at the corner of 8th and Vance Streets Sunday, May 21, 1939. Public is cordially invited.

Pastor, S. A. Fann.

FURTHER REDUCTIONS ON "VITALITIES" AT COBURNS

ALL BLACKS, PATENTS, JAPONICAS AND BLUES AT NEW LOW PRICE!

AND—included in this group is "TWEEDIE" Smart Shoes in the above-mentioned shades. Here is a Real Opportunity to buy a Good Pair of Shoes at substantial Savings. $6.75 values on Sale for

$4.85

Danielle
AAAAA to EEE
Sizes 2 to 11

200 Pairs of Ladies SANDALS Patents, Whites, Kids & other styles. All sizes. Values to 2.98
97c

50 Pairs of Mens VITALITY Oxfords in several Choice styles on Sale for only —
$3.85

Sale of Mens OXFORDS
$1.49
and $1.98

COBURNS

Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

SUN. ONLY — MAY 14
"BLONDIE"
with Penny Singleton

MON.-TUE. — MAY 15-16
Mickey Rooney
Lewis Stone
"HARDYS RIDE HIGH"

WED. ONLY — MAY 17
DOUBLE FEATURE
2 - Shows for One!
Ruth Hussey-Tom Neal
Within the Law
Lucille Ball
"NEXT TIME I MARRY"

THUR.-FRI. — MAY 18-19
LESLIE HOWARD in Bernard Shaw's
PYGMALION

SAT. ONLY — MAY 20
Bob Steele
"THE COLORADO KID"