

AROUND The TOWN

with ZEB DENNY

A morning or so after the election I went into the post office. I got my mail, which consisted of a handful of letters and a bungle-some package, and started out. As I was about to push the outer door open, I saw an elderly woman coming in. Assuming my most mannered air, I stepped back, holding the door ajar for her. I maneuvered my mail and myself about to allow her to pass through the next door. As she did so, she bowed graciously and with a beaming smile said:

"Good morning, Mr. Allsbrook." Whether it was a case of mistaken identity or whether she figured that only the newly elected mayor would show such politeness I do not know.

We have said a lot about the scout hut. But now we can only admire it. The last logs are up and the windows are cut. Soon the girls will be toasting marshmallows in the huge fireplace.

At present the future of the playground is uncertain. A few of us thought that of last year rather successful. Evidently we were but few. And what about the American Legion team? Just because Weldon licked the high school club we should not throw our hands in the air and yell "calf rope". Right now the high school has the best prospects for good baseball that it has enjoyed in several years, in the opinion of ye prejudiced columnist.

Young Jack DeVane made the Associated Press recently, as you probably noticed in your paper. Afterwards he got a taste of what it is like to receive "fan" mail. A girl in Chicago, seeing the article, wrote him a letter. Further developments are not available.

It's about time John M. Smith and Ralph Knight broke into print again. They will. Fishing time is coming on.

Diana and Bo, setters of the Graham and Hoyle families respectively, have recently been blessed with six offspring—five of them males. All the families are happy and doing nicely, thank you.

Child Listless?

Scolding won't help a child who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But the Week-End Cleansing will! Quicker relief may be wanted when constipation has your boy or girl headachy, bilious! Tonight or next week-end, Syrup of Black-Draught used by simple directions will relieve quickly, gently. Children like this all vegetable product! Syrup of Black-Draught comes in two sizes: 25c and 50c.

SUNDAY DINNER

Suggestions

By CORA ANTHONY
Director of A&P Kitchen

OUTDOOR rhubarb gently cooked with sugar to sweeten is a treat at the moment. It can be made into a number of delicious desserts alone or combined with strawberries, pineapple, bananas or grated orange rind according to taste.

Eggs are not being enjoyed as fully by most people as their current price and quality would justify. An excellent food and one of the cook's most important allies, they should be used freely while such an excellent value.

Cabbage prices are again nearly normal, lettuce is cheaper but spinach is somewhat higher. Green peas, beans and asparagus are reasonable in price. Most poultry, pork and beef, fish, butter and cheese are reasonable in price.

Low Cost Dinner
Chuck Pot Roast of Beef
Mashed Potatoes Green Beans
Bread and Butter
Rhubarb Pie Cheese
Tea or Coffee Milk

Moderate Cost Dinner
Roast Duckling with Rice Stuffing
Creamed Cabbage Grilled Bananas
Bread and Butter
Baked Rhubarb and Strawberry
Sponge Cobbler
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner
Grapefruit
Baked Ham
Browned Mashed Sweet Potatoes
Asparagus with Black Butter
Rolls and Butter
Fresh Strawberry Ice Cream
Angel Cake Coffee

Mrs. Williams Hostess

Mrs. Frank Williams was a delightful hostess on Wednesday afternoon entertaining the Contract Bridge Club at her lovely home on Roanoke Avenue. Twelve guests enjoyed a most interesting game at the conclusion of which Mrs. Carroll Wilson was awarded the high score prize. Many bowls of lovely flowers added beauty to the occasion. At five o'clock a salad course was served. Mrs. Gertrude Traynam and Mrs. Job Taylor came in for refreshments. Those enjoying Mrs. Williams' hospitality were: Mesdames W. S. Dean, Frank Kemp, T. J. Alford, Carroll Wilson, Lyle Wilson, W. L. Medlin, O. Griffin, T. B. White, P. E. Ransom, Pendleton Grizzard, Frank Wilson and J. M. C. Covington.

Correction

In the display advertisement of the A&P Food Stores appearing in the last issue of the Herald, there appeared the item: Tomatoes, 2-lbs. 15c. This was a mistake upon the part of the Herald. The item should have read: Tomatoes 2-lbs. 25c. The Herald is sorry this error occurred.

Haywood Williams of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gray of Fredricksburg, Va., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hudson visited Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Pearson at Valentine, Va. Sunday. George Hayes of Carolina spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes.
