

OWLS' JUNE SCHEDULE

GAMES HERE EVERY SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND WEDNESDAYS

A complete schedule of the home games of the Roanoke Rapids Owls for the month of June is announced by business manager Shearod Crumpler, showing games here every Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday with the exception of the last Wednesday in the month which will be filled later.

Baseball supporters, in view of this kind of home schedule and the type of ball team Manager Jesse Lee is getting here, are urged to buy their season passes at once in order that the necessary money to finance the season may be assured. Preliminary expenses are already mounting and in some cases, advances must be made to the boys to get them here. A ten-dollar pass is your part toward real baseball in Roanoke Rapids this Summer.

The June home schedule follows: Saturday, June 3, Bona Allen of Buford, Ga., here; Sunday, June 4, Bona Allen of Buford, Ga., here; Wednesday, June 7, Oxford, here; Saturday, June 10, Lucky Strikes of Durham, here; Sunday, June 11, Lucky Strikes of Durham, here; Wednesday, June 14, Colonial Heights, here; Saturday, June 17, Golden Belt of Durham, here; Sunday, June 18, Roxboro, here; Wednesday, June 21, Waverly, here; Saturday, June 24, Naval Training Station of Norfolk, here; Sunday, June 25, Charity Red Jackets of Norfolk, here; Saturday, July 1, Craddock Terry of Lynchburg, Va., here; Sunday, July 2, Craddock Terry of Lynchburg, Va., here; Wednesday, July 5, Colonial Heights here.

Greenville Beats Jax 6-5 Monday

Roanoke Rapids High School Jackets were defeated by Greenville in a close and thrill-packed, eleven inning baseball game, Monday, May 15, at Simmons Park by a 6 to 5 score.

Greenville scored the first two runs of the game in the third inning after a fumbled catch at first by Stewart, which put Wilson on. A single by Clark sent Wilson to third. Another single, by Taylor, brought Wilson and Clark home.

Riggins started the action in the third inning by getting a double his first trip to the plate, and scoring later on an error in left field.

Two more successive hits, for Greenville, in the fourth by Register and Babcock, a walk, and an error by shortstop Riggins, sent two men around the diamond to make the score 4 to 1.

After two singles in the fourth by Howell and Buffaloe, Riggins poled one out for three sacks and drove in two runs for the Jax. A single by Byrd and one by Wright, the next inning, sent Byrd in to tie the score at four all.

In the seventh, after getting a single and stealing second, Moseley scored on Stewart's single to give the Jackets a one run lead.

In the next inning, Stafford of Greenville, got on after a bad throw from short; another wild throw from center field advanced him to second. From there he tallied on a single by Register, to score the last tying run.

The home boys' last threat and chance to score came in the eleventh inning after L. H. Taylor, pinch hitting for Buffaloe, rifled out a single and then stole second Reynolds whiffed; Mills popped to short, and Byrd popped to third to end the threat.

Simms, who relieved Buffaloe in the tenth, allowed Babcock to get a single in the eleventh. Following Babcock's single was one by Wilson which drove Babcock in to make the final score 6 to 5.

For Greenville Taylor hurled with Stafford catching. Wright caught the eleven innings for the Jackets while Buffaloe pitched nine innings and Simms two. Jerry Brown went in for Waters in the eighth.

Leading the Greenville club was Babcock with three for four, while Riggins paced the home team with two for four.

Goldsboro Evens Up With Jax

Getting revenge for a 17 to 1 defeat, Goldsboro High School baseball team chalked up a 11 to 7 score over Roanoke Rapids High School at the Goldsboro Park May 16.

The Goldsboro team held the Jackets 4 to 0 until the 3rd inning. The Jax pushed one run in in the 3rd and one in the fifth, to make the score 4 to 2. Six errors and one walk brought in 7 more runs for Goldsboro in the sixth.

In the ninth Moseley singled over shortstop. Byrd got a single. A cree pinch-hit for Burton and got on by an error. Stewart forced a run to third. With two on base Wright slugged a homer over left field fence. Byrd flew out to the left field and Howell flew out to center field to end the rally.
