

Roanoke Mills No. 2 has only two softball clubs this year with about fifteen members on each club. One of the clubs is captained by Robert Rogers and C. Brown and the other piloted by Ruben Daniels and Nathan "Chubby" Taylor; while all teams at No. 2 are managed by our old friend, J. O. Brown. J. O. and the captains of the club are really making the boys hustle for a position this year, and by the middle of the season every position on both clubs should have a star in his own rights.

A City Farmer

NEW YORK—A cameraman recently snapped Grover A. Whalen, President of the New York World's Fair 1939, in overalls. He was inspecting a wheat field—the first to be planted in New York City in 65 years. It is part of a food exhibit.

The schedule for play in the inter-mill league is Monday-Tuesday and Thursday. Other days left open for exhibition games. Thursday last, the No. 2 lads journeyed down to the Rose Bowl where they clashed with the Roanoke No. 1 outfit. Roanoke No. 2 took the game when Fred Crofts smacked a homer to make the score 7-6.

Roanoke No. 2 played host to Bill Alligood and his hard playing Rosemary Clubs on Roanoke No. 2 park last Sunday. Ask Pentley Hux if DeBerry can throw that old apple or for that matter, ask any of the boys who played in that game—Yes sir, Bill, I think your pitching staff is about perfect.

BATTERY—Rosemary: DeBerry - R. Everette; Roanoke No. 2: Gossett - V. Rogers - J. Jenkins.

Roanoke No. 2 will again tangle with Rosemary Sunday afternoon at Ledgewood Park. You don't want to miss this one. Hope I get a chance to strike out Sunday, I hope—I hope.

Dorsey (Fat Lady) Nethery has decided he was not cut out for figure eight pitching after losing a four to three decision Monday.

Nathaniel (Chubby) Taylor, hefty first baseman, has figured that if he can get one hit this week and one next week that he will get two this season.

TIME MARCHES ON:

Henry (Sloppy Cashwell) hustling about the ball field every morning.

Bill Alligood trying to hit a fly ball to the outfield.

Na Taylor waddling around first base with a triple ought batting average.

Study Club Will Give School Prize

The Study Club had a very interesting meeting on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Lawrence Stell as hostess. A short business meeting was held followed by a book review, Mrs. R. P. Beckwith reviewing the book, "Reaching for the Stars" by Nora Waln, and Mrs. Matthew Broun giving a review of Pearl Buck's book, "The Patriot". The Club voted to give a prize to the Senior having the best attendance record during the twelve years in school. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess. Those answering roll call were: Mesdames Heath Lee, R. P. Beckwith, Matthew Broun, H. S. Loy, D. C. Clark, C. A. Wyche, Lawrence Clements and A. Meikle.

A Striking DuPont

Miss Zara du Pont, 70, member of the Du Pont family, puts on a gas mask as she marches with striking seamen in Everett, Mass. She belongs to Civil Liberties League. The gas mask came as aftermath of tear gas bombs thrown by police during an outbreak.

Final Plans Made For Youth Conf'ce In Raleigh 19 & 20

Final arrangements have been completed for the conducting of the N. C. Youth Exhibit and Conference in Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20, it was learned yesterday from Mrs. Maddrey, NYA supervisor for Northampton and Halifax counties.

Mrs. Maddrey will leave Friday for Raleigh where a number of articles made by the NYA youth in these counties will be on display during the two days of the conference. Exhibits will be open in the Memorial Auditorium for Friday afternoon through Saturday evening at 10:00 o'clock, Mrs. Maddrey said.

Besides the exhibits, a full program of discussion conferences has been arranged for Saturday, with everyone interested invited to attend the sessions and to participate in the open forum discussions which are to follow.

Leading off the conference Saturday morning at 9 o'clock will be a talk on "Youth and Employment" by Tom L. Popejoy of Washington, D. C., Deputy Administrator of the National Youth Administration. The forum will be headed by State NYA Director John A. Lang. This session will be followed by one on "Youth and Education" with the main speaker Dr. Charles H. Judd, former head of the University of Chicago's Department of Education and now Director of Education for the NYA. William Aycock, instructor in Greensboro High School and vice-president of the National Student Federation, will lead open forum discussion.

Bruce L. Melvin, social economist for the WPA research division in Washington, will start the Saturday afternoon conferences with a talk on "Youth and Rural Problems", and R. J. Peeler, State Executive Secretary of the Future Farmers of America, will chair the session. The last section will feature Dr. Harold L. Meyer of the University of North Carolina on "Youth and Democracy". Dr. Meyers recently returned from Europe where he made special study of the place of youth in dictator countries. R. Mayne Albright, director of the State Employment Service, and Miss Helen Fuller, chairman of the Council of Young Southerners, will lead discussion on this topic. Also scheduled to appear on these programs are R. O'Hara Lannier, assistant director of NYA Negro Affairs, and William Trent Jr., Advisor on Negro Affairs in the Department of the Interior.

The Youth Exhibit and Conference is sponsored by the N. C. Council of Youth-Serving Agencies, and participating will be the Civilian Conservation Corps, the 4-H Clubs, the Future Farmers of America, the domestic science and vocational education divisions of the Department of Public Instruction, the State Employment Service, the WPA Education Division, and other youth groups and organizations.

The Exhibit and Conference sessions are to be open to the public and anyone may participate in the open forum discussions.

Weldon Girl Making Good College Record

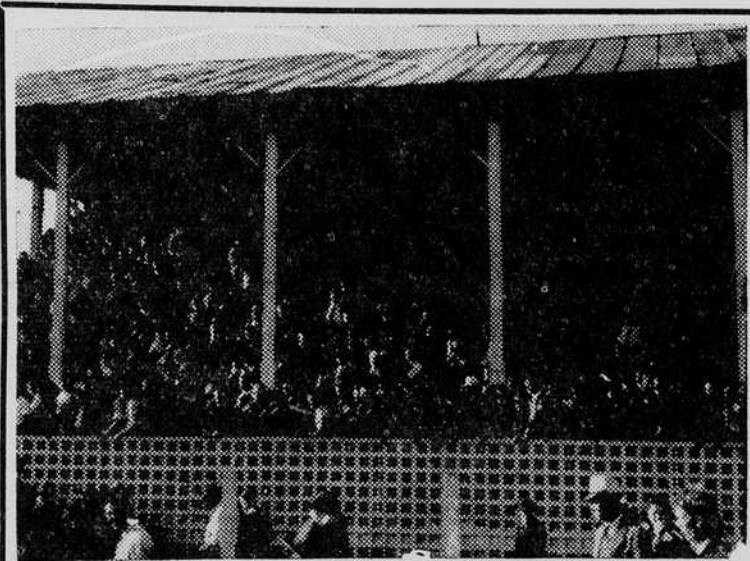

The rising sophomore class at Greensboro College has chosen officers for the coming year as follows: Sarah West Davis, President, Weldon; Jeanne Edgerton, Vice-President, Goldsboro; Jean Darris, Secretary, Gibsonville; Sarah Hill, Treasurer, Kinston; and Dorothy Smith, Council Representative, Bridgeton.

Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Davis of Weldon, is also on the staff of the "Collegian". She poured tea at the reception given for the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association on Thursday. She is a member of the Honor Society and is registered in the "Gold Book", having made the honor roll for the year.

With Lady Fair

Miss Catherine Armstrong has arrived from Greenville, N. C., to accept a position with the Lady Fair Beauty Shop.

A FAMILIAR SIGN TO SOFT DRINK DRINKERS EVERYWHERE

It is most remarkable, this "SWITCH TO DR. PEPPER" attitude that has come about the last few years . . . yet it's apparent on every hand . . . Notice it the next time you attend a big baseball game, or large gathering of any kind . . . There's a marked PREFERENCE for DR. PEPPER . . . AND—Dr. Pepper drinkers consistently "stick to it!"

There IS a reason . . . and until you have actually tasted a frosty-cold DR. PEPPER on a hot day, you cannot realize how quickly it seems to ENERGIZE your entire system. See "Suicide" Hayes next Sunday afternoon, and while there, say "DR. PEPPER" to your vendor, "the CHOICE of the Grandstand!"
