

Card Postdated 1926 Comes To Miss Fanny Sat.

Miss Fanny Manning found in her mail last Saturday morning a card addressed to a woman in Dallas, Texas. It carried a post mark of Birmingham, Alabama, April 16, 1926.

The card was written in a feminine hand and stated that the writer would see the addressee before Sunday, April 28, presumably in 1926.

The scene pictured on the front of the card shows "An entrance to Mountain Terrace" in Birmingham. Two cars, of early 1920 models, are shown in the street.

The card was in good condition, as if it might have been dropped into a post office only a week ago. The writing, in ink, was in no way illegible from age.

No one seems to have an explanation as to why it came into Miss Fanny's hands.

Former Citizen Of Weldon Passes At Dunn December 28

Mrs. Irene B. Zollicoffer died Thursday morning in Dunn, N. C., following an illness of several months duration. Funeral services were conducted from the home of her sister in Dunn Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and the body was taken to Four Oaks for burial.

Mrs. Zollicoffer was a resident of Weldon for approximately fifteen years, moving to Dunn only a few weeks ago. She was a member of the Weldon Methodist Church where she was a choir member, and also a member of the Junius Daniel Chapter of the U. D. C.

She is survived by two children, Eleanor Zollicoffer and Marion Zollicoffer, her mother, Mrs. Baker, and one sister, Mrs. Braxton Johnson of Dunn.

AGED LITTLETON CITIZEN PASSES AFTER INJURY

T. V. Picot, 85, who lived with his nieces, Carrie Helen and Lizzie Moore at Littleton, died in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital last Sunday morning at 5:00. Mr. Picot fell in the cellar of the Moore home on Friday night and broke his leg. He was brought to the hospital where his condition was not considered serious. He became unconscious Saturday afternoon and did not rally before his death Sunday morning.

A short funeral service was held for Mr. Picot Monday morning at the Littleton Episcopal Church. He was then taken to Como, near Edenton, where he was buried Monday afternoon.

The deceased is survived by three nieces, Carrie Helen and Lizzie Moore, and Mrs. M. P. Cassada, all of Littleton, and Jack Cassada, a great nephew, formerly of Roanoke Rapids.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our husband and father, N. L. Etheridge, who departed this life three years ago January 1, 1940.

In our hearts your memory lingers So loving kind and true, There is not a day, dear father, That we do not think of you. Wife and children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Willis Kelly circle of the Roanoke Rapids Baptist Church, the employes of the Halifax Paper Company, and all others for their beautiful floral offerings and kindnesses shown us during the death of our husband and father.

Mrs. A. F. Ford and children.

Miss Irene Saunders left Monday for her home in Elizabeth City after spending the holidays here with Mr. C. Saunders.

Stripe Pebleruff with zipper front. Stripe treatment gives front panel effect. Kick pleats. 12 to 40. Shell Pink, Luggage and Pottery Blue.

3312 12-40 Leaf stripe Pebleruff. Novel stripe detail in bodice. Leather belt and chiffon kerchief. Slim waist pleats. 12 to 40. Navy, Luggage, Wine and Linen Blue.

3316 14-42 Pebbleruff printed in companion effect. All round shutter pleat stripe skirt. Covered buttons. 14 to 42. Luggage, Shell Pink and Linen Blue.

IF YOU'RE HEADING FOR WARM WEATHER, CRAM YOUR LUGGAGE FULL OF THESE NEW

Georgianas

Now, accumulate your new wardrobe from these authentic selections, as Georgiana creates the mode for winter in the South and gayer living everywhere. Their bizarre patterns and colorful new treatments take you traveling like a gypsy. If you love smart fitting, immaculate detail—choose one or all of them. Typical examples of Georgiana distinction and economy, because they tub so beautifully. And when you give one at Christmas, your gift carries the proud conviction that its smartness and fine needlework belies its modest price.

3334—Triple-dot stripe basket spun rayon designed for the half-size figure. Tucked bodice and matching skirt pleats. 14 1/2 to 24 1/2. Pottery Pink, Pottery Blue, Tropic Earth, Linen Blue.

$3.95

$5.95 $7.95

We Close Fri. at 6; Sat. at 9.

LEGGETT'S