

Jax To Meet Weldon On 27

Among the many other things which will precipitate upon the city Friday, September 27, the High School Yellow Jax will engage Weldon in the first football game of the year.

The game will be played at Weldon in the park there. The starting whistle will sound at 3:45, giving both schools time enough to get to the field for the opening kickoff, according to S. N. Graham of the local high school this afternoon.

Mrs. White Hostess

The first meeting of the Contract Club was held with Mrs. T. B. White as hostess, twelve guests enjoying a very delightful afternoon of bridge. Fall flowers were effectively used and a delightful salad course was enjoyed at refreshment time. The highest score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. Carroll Wilson. She was presented a lovely prize. Mrs. Howerton Gowen, a bride of the early summer, was also remembered by the hostess with a gift. The delightful hospitality of Mrs. White was enjoyed by Mesdames J. M. C. Covington, Frank Williams, Frank Kemp, W. L. Medlin, Lyle Wilson, W. H. Proctor, Pendleton Grizzard, Carroll Wilson, Frank Wilson, O. Griffin, W. S. Dean and Howerton Gowen.

Mrs. Dunn Hostess

The A-C Bridge Club met for the first time this fall with Mrs. John Dunn as hostess. An arrangement of fall flowers added much beauty to the occasion and several progressions were enjoyed. After adding the scores at five o'clock a prize was given for high score, Mrs. Lyle Wilson receiving a lovely gift. A salad plate was served for refreshments. This delightful party was enjoyed by Mesdames W. C. Williams, Julian Allsbrook, Cranford Hoyle, O. Griffin, Lyle Wilson, W. L. Medlin, T. B. White and T. J. Taylor.

Mrs. Lambeth Hostess

Mrs. Charles H. Lambeth entertained friends and members of her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon, September 11, in her home on Moseby Avenue in Littleton. The home was attractively decorated with fall flowers. There were six tables of bridge, and after several progressions the hostess served ice cream on meranges. Mrs. L. H. Justis won high score award for guests. Those playing were: Mesdames L. H. Justis, John P. Leach, Cleve Stallings, Horace Palmer, Henry House, Norman Mosley, Andrew May, Harold C. Smith, C. A. Jones, Luther Williams, Horace Robinson, M. Nelson, George Ragland, Roger C. Moore, Charles C. Abernathy, M. D. Beecher, Dennis A. Rose, Robert Thorne, Raymond Ward, E. Leslie Crawley, Alice Browning, William Leach and George Crawley.

Wednesday Club Meets

The Wednesday Afternoon Club enjoyed a very interesting and delightful afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. Clayton Gurley with Mrs. Gurley and Mrs. Lew Yerger jointly entertaining. Cut flowers and potted plants were effectively used, forming a pretty background for the three tables of players. Mrs. B. E. Stephenson and Mrs. T. J. Taylor, members of the club who will leave soon for South Carolina, were both remembered with a gift. Mrs. Herman Tickle of Washington was also remembered by the hostesses and the high score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. B. E. Stephenson. She was given a lovely prize. For refreshments a salad plate with coffee was served. Enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Gurley and Mrs. Yerger were: Mesdames R. A. Daniel, Jr., Wyche Land, Clyde Liske, B. E. Stephenson, Ray Rogers, Rives Manning, Edwin Akers, Elmer Starke, Bob Montieith, Thelma Daughtry, Herman Tickle and Roderick Meikle.

Visitors From Iowa

Mrs. E. M. Banghart and children, Dolly Ann and Donald, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jeffers this week. Mrs. Banghart is Mr. Jeffers' sister. They were returning from New York World's Fair and Washington, D. C., leaving here Wednesday for their home in Keokuk, Iowa.

Dr. Marshall To Speak At Gaston

The first meeting of the Gaston P.T.A. will be held in the school auditorium, Monday night, Sept. 23, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The principal feature of the program will be an address by Dr. Otis Marshall of Washington, D. C. Dr. Marshall is conducting a First Aid school at the Jackson High School under the auspices of the Northampton County Red Cross. He is a most interesting lecturer, and his address on Monday night will undoubtedly be highly enjoyed by all who will be so fortunate as to hear him, it is said. There will also be an entertainment feature by a group of children from the elementary grades.

An earnest appeal is made to all patrons and friends of the school to attend the meeting on Monday night and help to make a good start for the year in the P.T.A. work.

Lt. and Mrs. Graham Dean and son have been the guests of Mr. Dean's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dean. Mr. Dean left this week for Fort Knox but Mrs. Dean and son will remain here for a few weeks.
