

THE ROANOKE RAPIDS HERALD

CAROLINA'S FIRST
TABloid NEWSpaper

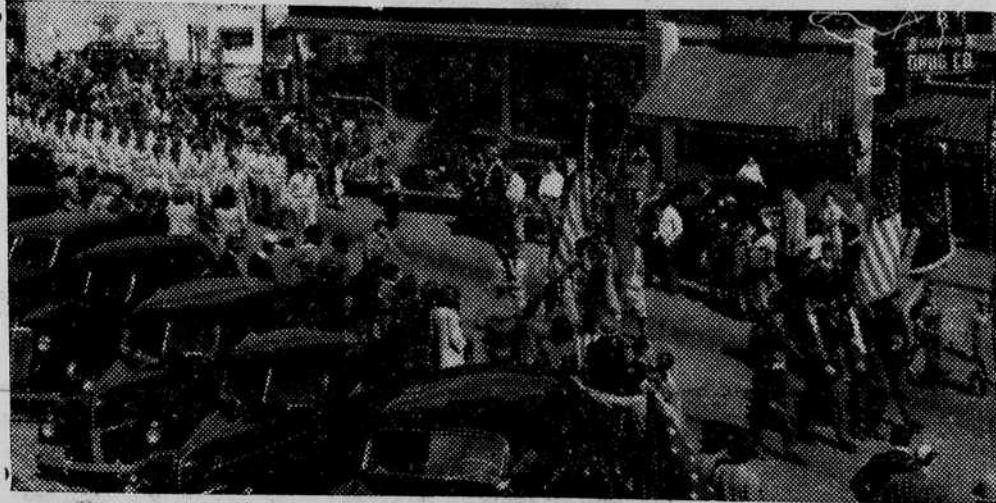

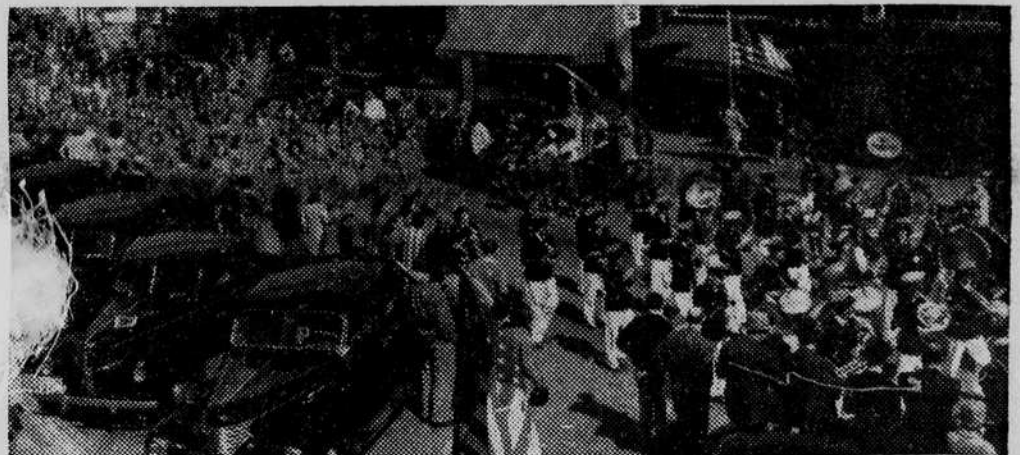

VOLUME TWENTY-SIX

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

THURSDAY, OCT. 3, 1940

NUMBER 12

RAPIDS ON PARADE

GOVERNOR COMES TO TOWN

Governor-Nominate J. Melville Broughton, principal speaker at the dedication of the Roanoke Rapids Armory site, approaches the mike on the speakers' stand to address 3,000 at impressive ceremonies. Seen left to right: Dr. Bahnsen Weathers, Representative J. R. Allsbrook, Governor Broughton, Chairman Carroll Wilson, Mayor Bernard Allsbrook . . . Mr. Broughton is passing Clerk of the Superior Court A. L. Hux, who remained seated until the Governor passed him. In the second row are Colonel H. A. Newell, 105th Medical Regiment, and his staff, with other city and county officials. (Complete stories inside)

ROANOKE RAPIDS ON PARADE Friday, Sept. 27th, 1940, with biggest military parade in the history of this industrial center of Halifax County, honoring Company B, 105th Medical Regiment, 30th Division, U. S. A. Start looking at Top Left, then down. Start again at Top Right and down. This will give you an idea of a part of the parade and rest of day's program as caught by staff photographers Crumpler, Brasington, Hodges and Grant (all Herald NewsKuts by Brigman and Crumpler) . . . Left Top: 105th Regiment Band of Henderson. In front were State Highway Patrol car, (Skinny Rothrock) with Mr. Broughton, followed by Major Newsom's car with Colonel Newell and staff . . . Left Center: Regimental color guard; Co. B color guard; Company B . . . Left Bottom: Veterans' color guard; Ex-service men . . . Right top: Roanoke Rapids High School Band; Girl Scouts . . . Right Center: More Girl Scouts; Boy Scouts . . . Right Bottom: More Boy Scouts; Sea Scouts; Cub Pack; Negro Scouts.

Meet This Friday

A special invitation to Democratic women of Halifax County was extended this week to attend the Institute of Government for women at Raleigh this Friday by Ruth Burke of La Grange, vice chairman and secretary of the 2nd Democratic Executive Committee.

The meeting will be held at the State Capitol from 10:30 A. M. to 1 P. M. with J. M. Broughton and other speakers. Mrs. Hoey will entertain the ladies at the Governor's mansion with tea from 3 to 5.

Buried Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Sallie Neal, 80, were held in the home at 209 Monroe Street this afternoon at 4 with the Rev. Daniel Lane officiating. Interment was in the Roanoke Rapids Cemetery. Mrs. Neal died Tuesday night at 7 p.m.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Jim Tanner and Mrs. Martha Aycock, both of Roanoke Rapids; a son, Joe Neal of the city; 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.