Help Wanted

Clerical help is needed for the job of registering the approximately 6,000 men between the ages of 21 and 36 in Halifax County next Wednesday, October 16.

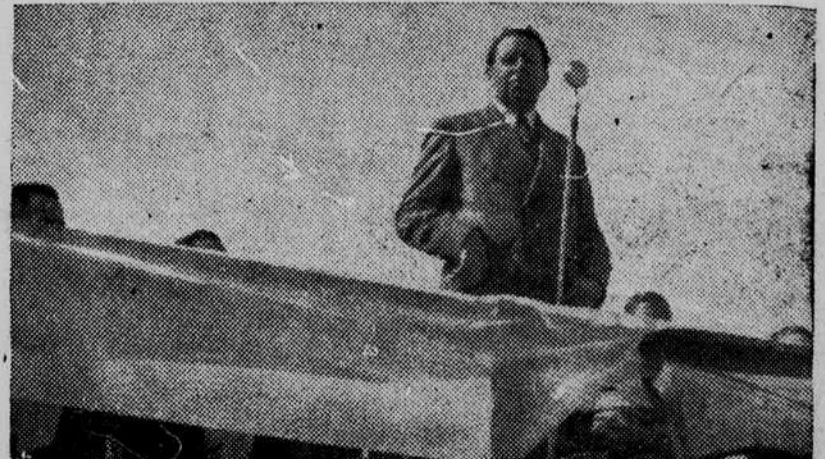

Kelly Jenkins, Chairman of the County Board of Elections which is in charge of the registrations, said today that at least fifty persons were needed in this city alone for the big job on October 16. He stated that he would like to ask for volunteers through the press.

Those who are willing and able to serve in this task should communicate with Mr. Jenkins by telephone, letter, or go to see him in person. If the volunteer writes, he or she should give name, age, and address.

Following are rules governing irregular registration: 1. A man abroad or on the high seas on the day of registration must register within five days after reaching home. 2. A person sick may (a) secure a person to register for him if he is not in hospital; (b) if too sick to register, he may obtain special permission to register later by presenting doctor's certificate; (c) Special deputies will be sent to hospitals to register patients there (T. J. Alford has been appointed for the local hospital). 3. If absent from his home on registration day, a man may register at the most convenient registration place. His card will be sent to the local board. 4. Those in schools, colleges, etc., will come under provision 3 above. 5. Inmates of jails, penitentiaries, reform schools, asylums shall register the day they are released.

CHARGES GUARDSMEN

Governor-Nominate J. M. Broughton is pictured above, standing before the microphone on the reviewing stand at the armory site here during the dedicatory services. Recalling some of the deeds of former soldiers of North Carolina, he told the members of Company B that they had a great tradition to uphold. He felt, he went on, that they would carry on the tradition with great pride.
