Powell-Loy Film Finishes Run At Pitts Theatre

Myrna Loy is again teamed with William Powell in the new picture "I Love You Again," which will be shown last times Friday at the Pitts Theatre, in Emporia, Virginia.

Saturday, Roy Rogers comes to the Pitts screen in the new thriller, "Days of Jesse James." It is said to offer Rogers the type of role in which the popular western cowboy star excels.

Sunday only the Pitts will offer Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Freddie Bartholomew in the film, "Tom Brown's School Days." This is a picture similar in many ways to the famed "Mr. Chips" film, and is said to be pleasing audiences everywhere.

Ray Milland is teamed with Akim Tamiroff in "Untamed" for the Monday-Tuesday film on next week's Pitts program. Patricia Morrison is in the supporting cast.

Wednesday of next week will be "double-feature" day. Jean Rogers and Robert Sterling are costarred in "Yesterday's Heroes," for the first film, while George O'Brien has been booked in "Triple Justice" for the second bill.

Joint Hostesses

Complimenting Mrs. H. B. Rose of Hardensburg, Kentucky, Mrs. Sam Bunn and Mrs. George Lampley were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Bunn on Monday evening.
