

It's the 1941 streamlined edition of "Minstrel Revels" and you'll like it, not only for its smash hits and catchy tunes but for the fact that man for man the show packs more pep and humor than a lot of pro outfits. Jan. 30 and 31 is the date, folks!

If you like stand out humor and jokes, along with six of the best end men songs you ever heard, who could come any closer to making your wishes come true than Roland Johnson, George Gurley, Stonewall Cooper, Jack Hale, Mack Outland and Rufus Mountford? These boys are really good and you don't want to miss them. Jan. 30, Jan. 31st is the date, folks!

If you like good singing, come and hear the minstrel circle sing the refrain of all the numbers and that smashing opening medley and finale. Don't forget the soloist from the circle—these boys really put over their numbers. And don't forget that master of ceremonies, J. Byron Gurley, who will be back again. Jan. 30th and 31st is the date, folks!

If you like good music don't forget Raymond Taylor at the piano and Jay Sanders who is director of the orchestra. The music for the show is complete from beginning to end and that's something new in amateur shows. Take it from us, the music is plenty good. Jan. 30th and 31st are the dates, folks!

The show will be jointly sponsored by the Clara Hearne school Parent-Teacher Assoc. and the Rosemary Recreation Club. As the majority of the students of the school come from Rosemary Mill Village—people who buy tickets can readily see how the show will benefit both the school and the club. Jan. 30th, 31st is the date, folks!

Rosemary Recreation Club is now open on a full time basis with Mr. Odom in complete charge at all hours. To become a member, see Mr. Odom at the club and get the necessary information in regard to club membership. The showers are now ready for use and a small fee will be charged for their use. See the manager of the club.

Dancing will be on tap Saturday night at the club. Come out and enjoy yourself. The club is open every night until 10:30 p.m. and new records have been put on the "pic".

Pickups N' Putouts: There happens to be three songs in "Minstrel Revels" that unless we miss our guess—will cause a lot of people to reach for their handkerchiefs—because all three of them are very, very sweet—that was a swell doubleheader at Ledgerwood Park last Saturday—a home run by Tyrus Woodard featured the affair—George Gurley is going to lay them in their seats with the song he has in "Minstrel Revels"—Chet Allsbrook is singing my favorite song—and it is going to be one of the hits of the show—the Romances are planning to hit the small towns early in the spring with games in Washington, Greenville, New Bern, Kinston, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro, Wilmington, and the boys are willing to come across with nice guarantees to see the State Champs in action—local N. C. State alumni are planning to attend the Wolfpack Club banquet at Raleigh the latter part of this month—Mac McGee of Rosemary is on the program—See you at "Minstrel Revels!"
