

NEGRO IS BOUND OVER TO COURT ON THEFT CHARGE

Buddy Owens, local Negro, was ordered held for Superior Court by Mayor W. B. Allsbrook Monday in a hearing growing out of the alleged theft of $25 from the store of G. W. Holliday last Saturday night. Bond was set at $200.

Mr. Holliday, the only person to testify in the hearing, told the Court that Owens was the only person in the store at the time the money disappeared.

He said that he was preparing to close up for the night when the Negro came into the store and asked for a box of cakes. Mr. Holliday said that he had placed the $25 in a brown paper bag and put the bag in a basket, which he intended taking to his home.

When the man asked for the cakes, he set the basket down on the counter and got the cakes. After handing the cakes to the man, he went to the stove to turn off the draft.

In the meantime the Negro had left the store. Mr. Holliday picked up the basket and started out the door for his home. In a few seconds he discovered the loss of the money, he said.

None of the money had been recovered at the time of the hearing.
