

NINE 4-H CLUBS PARTICIPATE IN HEALTH PAGEANT

THEODORE RAY AND THERESA BOSWELL ARE HEALTHIEST

On last Thursday evening, 4-H Club members from the nine county clubs, with their parents, met at the Country Club on the Roanoke Rapids-Weldon Highway to witness the Health Pageant, "The Key".

Thomas Hockaday as keeper of the "Key", presented "Sunshine", "Fresh Air", "Rest", "Exercise", "Courage", "Clothing", "Food", "Cleanliness", and "Good Posture", taken respectively by the nine clubs: Hobgood, Ringwood, Tillery, Roanoke Rapids, William R. Davie, Hollister, Aurelian Springs, Enfield, and Weldon.

As the combination was completed the Halifax County Health contest winners, Theodore Ray and Theresa Boswell, were released from the safe by the keeper, and were crowned King and Queen of Health by Mrs. East, Supervisor of Halifax County Public Health Nurses.

At the end of the Health Pageant the 4-H Club Parents' Banquet was held in the Club House. Bobby Bounds, president of the County Council of 4-H Clubs, was Master of Ceremonies. Others taking part on this program were Mrs. B. A. Whitley of the Hardra- wee Club, who gave the response to the toast to "parents", Mrs. Elliot Clark sang "Trees"; County Farm Agent W. O. Davis, talked on "4-H Club Work", and as guests of the occasion, Mr. Julian Allsbrook and Mrs. L. M. Butts responded with words of inspiration and courage.

Invited guests were Representative E. L. Travis, B. B. Everett, and Julian Allsbrook; County Commissioners Waldo Whitaker, M. W. Perry, N. W. Warren, J. R. Wrenn, and W. J. Collier; County Health Department Officials Dr. Robert F. Young and Mrs. East; President of the Country Club Board of Directors, Dr. Upshur Higgenbotham; and President of Home Demonstration Clubs, Mrs. L. M. Butts.

JESSE JAMES IN PERSON WILL BE SEEN AT LEVON

"Rage In Heaven" is the stellar attraction opening a week of smash hits from filmdom at the Levon Theatre in Weldon on Sunday and Monday, June 22-23. Robert Montgomery and Ingrid Bergman have the leading roles in the picture, and there will also be shown news and an act.

Tuesday the Levon has scheduled as the act of the week, Jesse James, in person. James, in case you have forgotten, was a Missouri outlaw of some years ago and millions of words have been written about the exploits of the gang headed by Jesse and his brother, Frank James. Jesse, in the flesh, will be seen on the Levon stage next Tuesday.

Edward G. Robinson has the title role in "The Sea Wolf", a saga of the whaling ships and a man too tough to be tamed, at the Levon on Thursday and Friday. John Garfield and Ida Lupino have supporting roles in the film, and a comedy and act will complete the program for the two days.

Saturday the Levon will show Johnny Mack Brown in "Law of the Range", and James Dunn and Frances Gifford in "Hold That Woman". In addition to the double-feature, Chapter 8 of "White Eagle" is scheduled.
