ALL MEN BECOMING 21 SINCE OCT. 1, AFFECTED BY LAW

Boards Will Register Men On July 1

Every man in the State of North Carolina who has attained the 21st anniversary of the day of his birth since October 16, 1940 (with a few exceptions noted below), must register with his local Selective Service board on July 1, State Director J. Van B. Metts stated today.

Men required to register in this second registration are those who were born on or between October 17, 1919, and July 1, 1920.

Aliens, as well as American citizens, who become 21 years of age before midnight July 1, 1941, must register, Director Metts emphasized. He also pointed out that aliens between the ages of 21 and 36 years, who have come to the United States since the first registration on October 16, 1940 and have not yet registered, must register on July 1.

Special arrangements will be made by local boards to register men who cannot appear before the local board because of illness or incapacity. Men subject to registration who are inmates of asylums, jails, penitentiaries, or other similar institutions on July 1 will be registered by the warden on the day they leave the institution.

Men subject to registration on July 1 who are away from home and cannot, except at great expense and inconvenience, return to their own local boards to register, may appear before the nearest local board and will be registered there. Such men should be cautioned, however, to give their permanent addresses when registering, General Metts said.

Men who are required to register on July 1 and fail to do so will subject themselves to severe penalties, including imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or both fine and imprisonment, General Metts emphasized.

The only men within the age limits who are not required to register are the following:

Commissioned officers, warrant officers, pay clerks, and enlisted men of the Regular Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Public Health Service, the federally recognized active National Guard, the Officers' Reserve Corps, the Regular Army Reserve, the Enlisted Reserve Corps, the Naval Reserve, and the Marine Corps Reserve; cadets, United States Military Academy; midshipmen, United States Naval Academy; cadets, United States Coast Guard Academy; men who have been accepted for admittance (commencing with the academic year next succeeding such acceptance) to the United States Military Academy as cadets, to the United States Naval Academy as midshipmen, or to the United States Coast Guard Academy as cadets, but only during the continuance of such acceptance, cadets of the advanced course, senior division, Reserve Officers' Training Corps or Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps; members of the Coast Guard Reserve, other than temporary members; and diplomatic representatives, technical attaches of foreign embassies and legations, consuls general, consuls, vice consuls, and consular agents of foreign countries, residing in the United States, who are not citizens of the United States, and who have not declared their intention to become citizens of the United States.

INFORMATION

Men who will register on July 1, 1941, were cautioned today by General J. Van B. Metts, State Director of Selective Service, to be careful to give to the registrar who registers them correct information as to the place of their permanent residence. The name of the township, county and state must be stated specifically and must be paced on line 2 of the registration card. It is most important that men registering be careful to give the correct location of their residence because the place of residence placed on line 2 of the registration card will determine the local board which will have jurisdiction over them, General Metts emphasized.

On the first registration day many registrants gave confusing information, and this resulted in their registration cards often being assigned to the wrong local board. This resulted in many complications and Selective Service agencies were subjected to unreasonable worry and trouble transferring cards. The new Selective Service Regulations, prepared for the July 1, 1941, registration, provide that there will be no future transfer of cards. The place of residence of the registrant, which will appear on line 2 of the registration card, will once and for all determine the local board which has control over the registrant.

A place is provided for the new registration card for registrants to indicate the place of residence and the mailing address. The mailing address is not so important as the residence address, because the mailing address may be changed as often as the registrant establishes a new address. But the place of residence, to be indicated on line 2 of the registration card, will never be changed, and the original card will be assigned to the local board having jurisdiction over the area of the residence address.

The new Regulations provide that the registrant shall be permitted to determine what place he desires to give as his residence when he does not reside in one place all the time, but once that election is made and is stated on registration day and is recorded on the registration card, it may never be changed thereafter.

Allen - Campbell

The Plymouth Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Friday afternoon, June 6th, at 4 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Campbell became the bride of Randolph Johnston Allen, with the pastor, the Rev. O. L. Hardwick officiating. Palms and fern made a background for the baskets of lilies, hydrangea and gypsophila, which were interspersed with seven-branched candle standards with lighted white tapers. A program of wedding music was presented prior to the ceremony by Shep Brinkley, organist, and Mrs. W. A. China, sister of the bridegroom, violinist. C. J. Norman of Plymouth sang "Ave Maria", by Schubert. "To A Wild Rose" was softly played during the ceremony by Mrs. China and Mr. Brinkley.

Ushers were Robert Burbage Campbell of Wilmington, brother of the bride, and Wheeler Manning of Williamston. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Marcus Allen of Florence, S. C., as best man.

The bride entered with her father, J. R. Campbell, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore white chantilly lace with floor length skirt of double illusion, and her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were a bridal bouquet of lilies and orchids. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah Belle Smith of Elizabeth City, as maid of honor, Miss Anne Bailey of Newsoms, Virginia, and Miss Mary Lillian Campbell of Plymouth, as brides' maids.

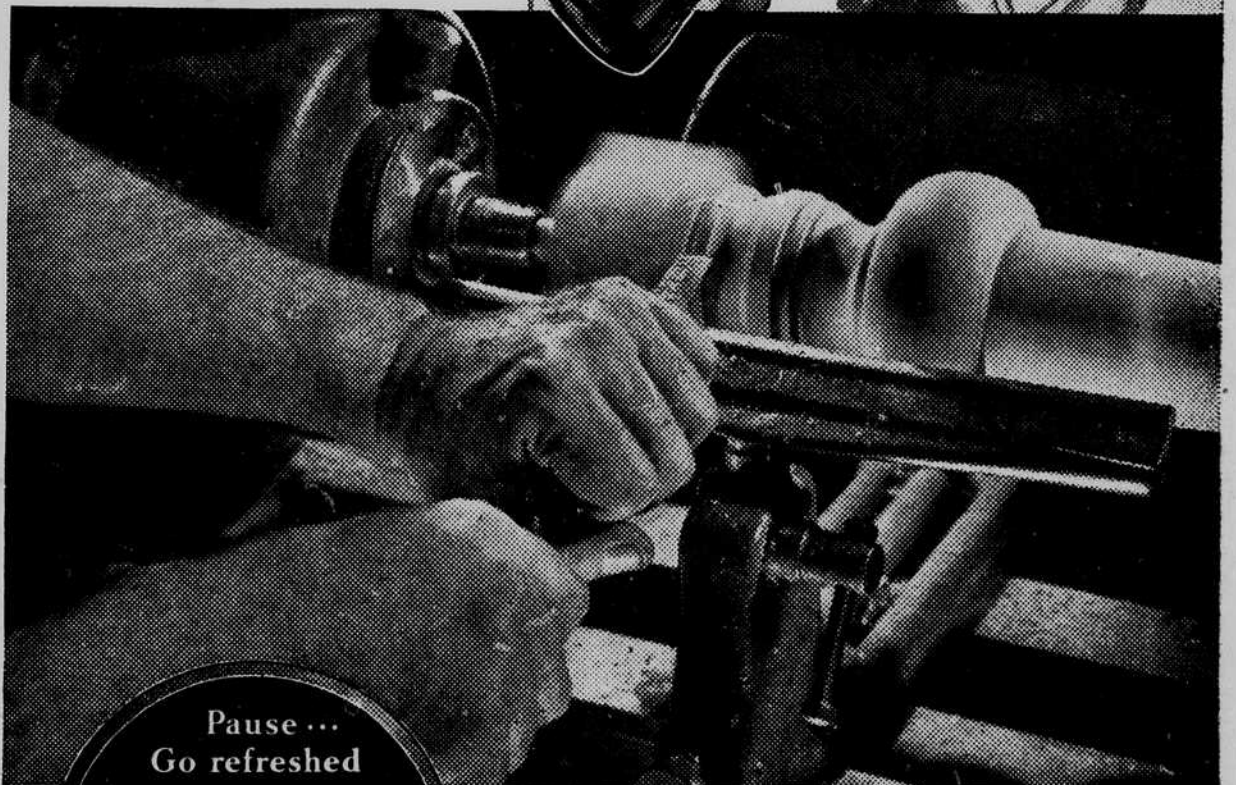

Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. AllentCs

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Campbell of Plymouth. Mr. Allen is the son of Mrs. M. H. Allen and the late Mr. Allen of Littleton. He is now associated with Dixie Motor Company of Williamston where the couple will be at home following a bridal trip through the mountains of Virginia and North Carolina.

Following the rehearsal Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Campbell, parents of the bride, entertained at a cake cutting at their home for the bridal party and out of town guests. The receiving line was composed of the bridal party and Mrs. M. H. Allen, mother of the bridegroom.
