Pirates To Play All-Star Team Of Rocky Mt. Here

The Patterson Mill Pirates will play the Rocky Mount All-Stars in a doubleheader at the Patterson ball park here Friday night, and the first game will be called promptly at 8 o'clock.

It will be the first time this year that the Patterson Pirates have played the Rocky Mount All-Stars, who have tangled with the Rosemary Romano's earlier this season.

Jerry Cranford will pitch the first game for the Pirates, and Robert "Slug" Lassiter will hurl the second. Roy Blythe will catch both games.

For Rocky Mount, Bud Coley will be on the mound the first game, and Richard Ezzell will be trying to battle the Pirates with his offerings from the mound in the second affair. Robert Sykes will be behind the plate for the visitors during both games.

Coley, Rocky Mount hurler, pitched a no-hit, no-run game Tuesday night against the Raleigh All-Stars.

Crawley - McDonald

The wedding of Miss Nancy Lillian McDonald of Roanoke Rap-ids and Edward Lee Crawley of Enfield was solemnized at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, June 22nd, in the First Presbyterian Church of Roanoke Rapids with the Rev. Lawrence Stell, pastor of the bride, officiating.

The bride wore a white shark-skin dress with navy trim and white accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink roses and gypsophelia.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip.

Mrs. Crawley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel William Mc-Donald of Roanoke Rapids. She holds a position in the office of Roanoke Mills Company.

Mrs. Crawley is the daughter of David Blount Crawley, Sr., of En-field, and the late Mr. Crawley. He is connected with the firm of Holliday and Whitaker.

HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Graham Shell was hostess on Friday evening honoring Miss Winifred Shell, whose wedding to George Nethercutt takes place on Sunday, July 6, with a bridge shower at her home on Madison Street. Bowls of lovely hydrangeas and roses added effectively to the occasion. Three tables of players enjoyed four progressions, after which the scores were collected and Mrs. McQueen Cameron was presented the high score prize. The honoree was remembered with linen. Centering the bride-elect's table, after the cards were re-moved, was an attractive center piece of cellophane with miniature bride and groom. The favors were miniature sprinklers in green and white with green and white mints. A salad plate was enjoyed with fruit punch. After serving refresh-ments, a serving table was rolled in the living room piled with many packages of lovely gifts, suspended from a large summer parasol in varigated colors with cellophane streamers. As Miss Shell opened the gifts she grac-iously expressed her thanks to each one. Several guests came in for refreshments. Mrs. Shell was assisted by Mrs. Bill Dunning in entertaining and serving the guests. Those enjoying this lovely party were: Misses Winifred Shell, Mildred Moore, Mary Vir-ginia Jenkins, Margaret Cox, Edith Moody, Mildred May, Dorothy Harris, Nancy Wolhar, Elizabeth Brown, Addie Belle Grogan of Winston-Salem, Merle Cole, Mes-dames I. J. Byrd, McQueen Cam-eron, Bill Dunning, L. G. Shell, Curtis Shell, Howard Hancock, and Fannie Hayes.
