Draft-Age Men With Dependents To Be Deferred

Local draft board officials announced today that national Selective Service headquarters has ordered the deferment of draft-age married men and other registrants with one or more dependents to whose support they make "any substantial contribution."

Instructions to that effect were sent to all State Selective Service directors by Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, who also ordered the reclassification of all such men who have been placed in Class 1-A by their local board.

Twenty-four white men are scheduled to leave here on July 8 for induction into the army, and the call completely exhausted the group of men already classified, examined and awaiting their call to service. In order to fill the quota, the local board had a large number of men examined yesterday and from the group will be selected six to go with the 18 men notified that they will be inducted into military service next Tuesday.

Conference For Draft Officials At Rocky Mount

District conferences for local board members, clerks, appeal agents, and examining physicians of the Selective Service Act were held yesterday at Rocky Mount.

State Administrative officials of the Selective Service Act led the discussion for local board members, clerks, and appeal agents at a conference held in the recorder's court room of the Rocky Mount Municipal Building. A medical officer from an induction station and a State medical officer from headquarters conducted a discussion of the medical problems of examining physicians in the old recorder's court room over the Rocky Mount Chamber of Commerce office. Both conferences began at 2 p.m.

Clerk M. McRae Faison of the local draft board, Chairman T. W. Mullen, W. A. China, D. W. Seifert and Appeal Agent C. R. Daniel attended the conference for administrative officials of the Selective Service Act.

Examining physicians of the local board are F. G. Jarman, M. C. Maddrey, John W. Martin, Bahnsen Weathers, M. S. Brown, W. E. Murphy, W. M. Ward Upshur Higgenbotham, R. M. Barden, R. H. Ames, F. G. Kroncke, and R. R. Beckwith of Roanoke Rapids; W. G. Suiter and R. B. Blowe of Weldon; and L. H. Justis and Horace Palmer of Littleton.

Sears-Roebuck Buyer Is Here

W. C. Oakman, buyer of outing flannels for Sears Roebuck Company, was in the city this week on a visit to the local mills. Sears Roebuck buys outing flannels from the Roanoke Mills No. 1, and is one of the largest purchasers of the material in the world.

Accompanying Oakman to Roanoke Rapids was his eighteen-year-old son, W. C. Oakman, Jr. They arrived here Tuesday and plan to leave the city tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lynch and children, Mrs. P. Y. Lynch and Miss Edna Myrick visited Mrs. Della Myrick at Littleton Sunday afternoon.

Funeral Services for W. E. Andleton

Funeral services for W. E. Andleton, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Powell, 363 Lee Ave., Hampton, Virginia, were held at Smith Methodist Church, near Weldon, on Saturday, June 28, at 2:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by the Pastor, the Rev. O. I. Hinson.

Active pallbearers were: Raymond Garner, Clifton Garner, A. L. Garner, Linwood Andleton, Raymond Keeter and Howard Keeter. Mr. Andleton was a native of Halifax County, but for the last six months had made his home with his daughter in Virginia. He had been in ill health for some time.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Enda Andleton; four daughters, Musie, Estelle, Lois Andleton, and Mrs. J. S. Powell of Hampton, Va.; six sons, Paul, Clayton, Charlie, of Newport News, Va., Eugene and Lee of Portsmouth, Va., and brother, A. W. Andleton of Enfield; and a sister Mrs. Nellie Garner of Weldon; also 11 grandchildren.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Tommie Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith, celebrated his tenth birthday Friday afternoon with a party at his home on Hamilton Street. Ice cream and cake was served and favors given to the following: Charlotte Anne Shell, Betty Kidd, Jean Kidd, Doris Edwards, Ann Wood, Nancy Gnantt, Lanny Story, Bobby Pope, James Harris, Eddie Wells, James Bridgman, Billy Barrow and Ernestine Smith.

Funeral Services For Lewis Cook

Lewis L. Cook, 59, died at his home at Littleton about midnight after an illness of about six months with a cancer.

A native of Halifax County, he was well known in his community where he took an active part in various activities. He was a member of the Ebenezer Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. H. L. Davis of the Littleton Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Jones. Interment was in the Hedgepeth family cemetery at Darlington.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs.

Nora Hedgepeth Cook; five daughters, Misses Alice and Louise Cook, Mrs. Sterling Warrent, Mrs. Ezra Jordan and Mrs. Harvey Warren; and two sons, Alfred and Joe Cook, all of Littleton; a sister, Mrs. J. H. Tanner of Darlington; a brother, J. T. Cook of Brinkleyville; and eight grandchildren.

Attend Camp

The following Girl Scouts of Troop 3 and Troop 4 attended camp June 21-28 at Camp Balance Rock near Henderson: Dorothea Askew, Jo Ann Brasington, Margaret Brown, Mae Allen Burbage, Rose Cooksey, Helen Daughtry, Josephine Draper, Annette Edwards, Hattie Mae Gray, Louise King, Mae Leitner, Shirley Taylor, Thelma Taylor, Pheny Webb, Nelda Williams and Patsy Wolhar.

In spite of the rainy weather the scouts managed to participate in many activities listed in the outdoor Cooks Badge, leaving only a few loose ends which they intend to tie up on hikes this summer. The sample of outdoor cooking at camp was very inspiring.

The camp activities were under the direction of the following counselors: Mrs. Charlie Butts, Mrs. Lloyd Allen, Miss Goldie Moore, Life Guard; Miss Alma O'dell, Miss Louise E. Brown, Director; and J. T. and Walter Brown, Life Guards and Counselors for Health, Safety, and Grounds.
