Soldier Under Bond Charged With Car Theft

Vernon E. Stairs, soldier formerly attached to Mitchell Field, Long Island, was fined and made to pay C. T. Sumner for gasoline and oil he received at Sumner's filling station at Jackson and then attempted to flee the county without paying the bill when given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate J. H. Boone.

The soldier drove up to the filling station and ordered a tank full of gasoline and two quarts of oil, and when Sumner had finished servicing the car the young man asked for two packs of cigarettes. When the filling station attendant went after the cigarettes, Stairs drove off.

Sheriff J. C. Stephenson was notified and gave chase. The soldier drove towards Conway, turned around and went back through Jackson. He was stopped on the Jackson-Garysburg highway near Longview, carried back to Jackson and jailed.

It was found upon investigation that the automobile the soldier was driving had been stolen in New York, and Stairs was turned over to an FBI agent and placed under $500 bond for stealing the car which he was driving.
