WHITE—COLE

Miss Kara Reid Cole became the bride of Howard Vernon White Thursday afternoon, October 9, at 4:30 o'clock in the Baptist Church, the Rev. E. Norfleet Gardner of Henderson, officiating.

Native greenery, fern, white chrysanthemums and cathedral candles formed a setting for the ceremony.

Mrs. E. L. Crawley played a musical program. Miss Frances Harrison of Henderson sang. Traditional wedding marches were used.

Just before the bridal party entered, Moses L. Cole, Jr., and W. B. White of Charlotte lighted the candles. Ushers were Dr. C. H. White, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, Robert Faulker, all of Henderson, and Dr. Evans Coleman, of Wise.

Miss Mary Faucette Ricks was maid of honor and the only attendant. Little Alice Manning Finch, flower girl, preceded the bride.

The bride entered with her father, Moses Lloyd Cole, by whom she was given in marriage. Best man was J. J. White, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a blue wool costume suit, trimmed with blue fox, hat to match and black accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cole of Littleton. The bridegroom is the son of the late J. J. White and Mrs. White. He and his brother are proprietors of White Brothers Drug Company in Henderson.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. White left for a trip to points unannounced.

The couple will make their home in Henderson.

Immediately after the White—Cole wedding rehearsal Wednesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Moses L. Cole entertained at a cake-cutting. Those present were members of the bridal party, out-of-town guests and several of the bride's friends from Littleton.
