

68 BOYS TAKING COURSE

A total of 68 boys registered in four defense pre-employment courses are receiving training at McIver High School at Littleton which has recently got underway by W. B. Jamieson, vocational agriculture teacher, who is supervising the work, and A. L. Finch, principal.

The Courses which are being offered are Auto Mechanics, which deals with the operation, care, repair of tractors, trucks and automobiles. Metal work, which includes welding, tempering drilling, shaping and Machinery repair. Elementary Electricity, which also includes operation care, repair of electrical equipment and wiring for light and power. Woodworking course—This course includes rough carpentry work, such as construction of barns, poultry houses, hog houses, trailer bodies, build or repair any farm building.

The boys in woodworking are enjoying the course very much, so far, they are working at night, and securing light by the use of extension cords, which enable them to construct two brooder houses.

LEAGUE PARTY

The Epworth League had a Halloween party on Friday night at the Boy Scout Hut. Games were played and refreshments were served at 10 o'clock. Everyone had a wonderful time.

On Sunday night the League was entertained by a program put on by its members. They were Lucy May Babbs, Bill Bobbitt, Mildred Allen, and Alton Finch. The program was, "Let Us Praise God".

There were two council meetings this past week. They decided on the programs for the next two Sundays. The program for Sunday night will be, "The Threat of Paganism". Douglas Hasty will have charge of the program. Those to take part are Irma Lee Grant, Ed Johnson, Charlotte Grant and Harvey Woodruff.

The Epworth League welcomes any young people that might be interested in visiting or joining with them.

CLASS MEETS

The T.E.L. Class of Rosemary Baptist Church held the October meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Grover C. Ricks.

After the business was transacted the hostess served ice cream and cake.

Attending were Mesdames J. W. Briton, F. W. Haynie, P. A. Cooke, H. T. Davis, Josie Francis, W. M. Irwin, L. B. Crouch, and W. J. Jordan. Mrs. B. O. Davis of Texas was a visitor.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held the October meeting in the home of Mrs. Dora Hawkins. Eighteen members and five visitors were present.

Miss Mildred Powell led the devotional and gave a very helpful talk to all.

After the meeting adjourned the society honored one of its members, Mrs. Eb Williams, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower.

A salad plate with ice tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coleman, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rightmyer, left Wednesday to spend the winter in Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Murphrey and children, Willis and Ann, spent the week-end in Raleigh.

Mrs. W. E. Hawkins and son, Bill, have returned from Raleigh where they spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Speight were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pegram in Littleton Sunday.

PRO-DIVORCE

The international situation was brought into a divorce action by a woman, whose parents are reported to be living at Weldon, at Fayetteville, Arkansas, last week when Mrs. Charlotte Ann Von Mikusch-Buchberg was granted a divorce from Johannes Donatus Von Mikusch-Buchberg of Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Von Mikusch-Buchberg charged her husband's enthusiastic sympathy for Nazi Germany led to personal indignities to her. She established legal residence in Fayetteville, Ark., last summer to obtain the divorce, which was not contested.

She testified last Thursday that her husband, a chemist, was pro-German, that she was pro-British and that the result was they would get into quarrels and that as a climax to these, he would strike her.

Mrs. Linwood Robbins spent last Tuesday in Norfolk.

Mrs. J. R. Melton has returned to Norfolk.

Miss Mary Woodruff attended the Peanut Festival in Suffolk, Va., last week-end and also the Virginia -V.P.I. game at Norfolk, Va., Saturday.

Mrs. J. Sam Powell, Mrs. A. L. Garner and Mrs. Dora Hawkins attended the Zone meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, which was held at Halifax last Tuesday.
