Shaw Post's Armistice Day Program

Dr. Leroy Lewis, professor of public speaking at Duke University, is shown at the left above addressing some sixty members and invited guests of Shaw Post No. 38 of the American Legion at a special Armistice Day program at Weldon last week.

Manslaughter Cases On Docket For Trial Superior Court Term

LOST AT SEA

HUGH HOUSE, Gunner's Mate 3c, who was lost when the U.S.S. Reuben James was torpedoed west of Iceland on October 30, is shown above with the loving cup he won at the close of his high school career for being the best all-round student.

After graduating from high school, House ran a mercantile business near his home at Palmyra, and then joined the U. S. Navy on October 17, 1939, at the age of 20.

When his preliminary training was finished he was stationed on the U.S.S. Claxton until it was turned over to the British at Halifax, Nova Scotia, in 1940.

Judge Harris Is On Bench For Two Weeks

Judge W. C. Harris of Raleigh is slated to preside at a two weeks mixed term of Superior Court which will convene at Halifax on Monday.

Heading the docket are cases of manslaughter in which B. S. Kirkland of Whitakers and William Jones of Greensboro are charged with the death of Blanche Walston, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Walston of Scotland Neck. The girl was fatally injured November 5, by a car driven by Jones and owned by Kirkland, as she was boarding a school bus in front of the filling station operated by her father. Both defendants in the manslaughter case were said to have been drinking heavily.

Another case of interest which will probably be tried at the two-weeks term is that of J. Winfield Crew, local attorney charged with embezzlement and fraud. Other cases range from drunken driving to larceny.

Jurors drawn for the two weeks term are:

FIRST WEEK

Ben G. Braswell, Enfield; C. E. Medlin, Roanoke Rapids; F. R. Hamill, Faucette; E. C. Gupton, Butterwood; W. N. Aycock, Brinkleyville; A. D. Glasgow, Butterwood; J. B. Porter, Brinkleyville; John M. Stephenson, Weldon; J. N. Collins, Brinkleyville; B. H. Jenkins, Roanoke Rapids; Sam Freuler, Faucette; J. D. Cameron, Roanoke Rapids; T. C. Aycock, Faucette; M. C. Crawley, Butterwood; B. A. Hudson, Roanoke Rapids; J. L. Smith, Faucetts; C. H. Langston, Roanoke Rapids; W. E. Bellamy, Scotland Neck; Tom B.

Wreck Car Stolen Here

LOCAL YOUTHS OUT OF JAIL UNDER BOND

Two local 'teen-age youths are free under $500 bond each awaiting trial at the Halifax County Superior Court term opening Monday on charges of stealing and wrecking an automobile.

The youths, Leonard Moseley and Auburn Warick, were given a hearing before Magistrate W. O. Thompson here Monday night on the charges, and bound over to higher court.

They allegedly drove away from its parking place in front of Ray's Place on Roanoke Avenue last Saturday night a new Dodge automobile belonging to R. E. Merritt.

The automobile was turned over two or three times near Belmont by the youths, who were arrested by Deputy Sheriff C. F. Gray as he was passing the place at the time of the wreck.
