

Patterson Recreation

By MARGARET BUTLER

The Patterson Recreation Club closed for a few days but it is now opened again, and we are getting ready for the coming year. Plans are being made for more and better games and improvement on all recreation so that everyone will enjoy themselves.

Mr. Hall already has several very amusing and entertaining games that I am sure you will enjoy, and due to the fact that there isn't enough room in the club to keep some of the games out, Mr. Hall is keeping them put away. For those desiring to use the games, "just see Mooney." He might even want to play with you.

Bingo will get underway again this Saturday night and there has been a large selection of very lovely, useful, and entirely different prizes gathered up by Moonsey to give away. These things are really worth playing for and I know that you will be very pleased to win one or more of these gifts. You not only have fun playing bingo, but just listening to the conversations that are carried on by Curt Gore and his friend, Charlie Moore. Why, they will make any sourpuss there laugh. There isn't a dull moment when you are around such people. You can give Lizzie Shearin a big hand in the fun making, too, because she can put spirit into a tin soldier. Now remember, Saturday night, 8:30 o'clock, at Patterson Club. You will surely have a complete evening of fun.

This Tuesday night the ping pong teams will again meet. This is a four team league with Rosemary still on top. Tom Killebrew says that he thinks that these boys from Patterson Town will be right in there with Rosemary from now on. "Santa Claus must have brought Tom that new paddle he asked for". Anyway, Tom, good luck to you and the other ping pong lads.

Did you have a Merry Xmas? Russell Wrenn says that his could have been much better if he had gotten that "blonde bomber". Say, where were you, Snag?

Katie Fanney says that she had more Xmas spirit this year than ever before. Yep, me too, says Curt, every bit of two gallons. Well, I had a couple of days of spirit too, "Curt," but it wasn't in gallons.

We welcome all the boys home, from Fort Jackson. The Patterson Club is opened to you and the showers are ready for you to use. Come over and enjoy yourselves. Well, see you at the club.

ENTERTAIN

The members of Mrs. Cannon's kindergarten class were hosts to their families on Friday, December 19.

The guests were greeted at the door by one of the group and invited into the room, after which Christmas cookies were served. The cookies had been made by the kindergartners in preparation for the party.

The room was made festive for the occasion by a Christmas tree and many gifts made by the group. No member of the family had been forgotten. The gifts varied from musical wheels, toy horses, banks, doll beds and hand decorated flower containers to miniature snow-men ash trays. One end of the room was saved for toys and clothes that the group had contributed to help old Santa in his visits to the needy.

Those who attended the party were: Mrs. Tucker Fayed, Josephine Fayed, Dr. John W. Martin, Mrs. Martin, Jean Hall, Mrs. Ben Parker, Mrs. Savage, Barbara Brown, Mrs. Daniel Brockwell, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Dennis Johnson, Mrs. Beale, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, David Thompson, Mrs. Warwick, Carlton Cannon, Mrs. Colon Womble, Blanche Womble, Mrs. Malcolm Bardin, Mrs. Fleetwood Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. Tidwell.

Crew Enlists As Private In Army At Bragg

J. Winfield Crew, Jr., well-known local attorney, has enlisted in the United States Army, and reported for duty at Fort Bragg on December 26.

Crew volunteered for service the day after the United States declared war on Japan. He phoned Fort Bragg and offered his services in any capacity, and was enlisted as a Private in the ranks.

It is understood that due to his qualifications, Crew may be trained as a navigator of a bombing plane, since Army officers informed him there is a shortage in that field. However, this is not definite and he has not yet been assigned to any particular service.

The law firm he headed here will be handled during his absence by his brother, W. Lunsford Crew.

Taylor - Davis

The wedding of Miss Edith Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davis of this city, to James Taylor of this city was quietly solemnized Saturday afternoon, December 20th, in the Baptist parsonage, with the Rev. F. W. Haynie performing the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a navy ensemble with matching accessories.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of Roanoke Rapids High School. Mr. Taylor is employed at Rosemary Manufacturing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home on Jackson Street, with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davis.

Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Delfenthal celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary on Saturday night, December 20, 1941. A large number of friends and relatives were present to congratulate them upon twenty-five years of married life, and they were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts.
