Serving In War Zone

H. O. VAUGHAN

W. W. BRYANT

D. L. ROBBINS

Three of the young men from this section serving in the armed forces of the United States in the Pacific war area are First Sergeant D. L. Robbins, Seaman William Woodrow Bryant, and Private Herman Otis Vaughan.

Robbins, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins of 85 Jackson Street, this city, is with the U. S. Army in the Philippine Islands. At the last report he was stationed at Manila Bay, which is now one of the "hot spots" of the Philippines as the Japanese seek to take the islands.

Bryant, son of H. F. Bryant, Star Route, Roanoke Rapids, has been in the Navy for three years. He was stationed on the U.S.S. Southard, a mine sweeper, at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, when the Japs blasted that section in a bombing attack on December 7. A telegram to his relatives here on December 19, stated that he was "O.K."

Vaughan is the son of Harvey Vaughan of this city, and is with the Army in the Philippine Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rook and Earl, Jr., spent the Christmas holidays in Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md.
