Respectfully submitted,
 T. J. Alford, Treasurer.

E. B. Manning explained that the returned funds from Associated Charities to the Chest were an accumulation for the period of years for 1939, 1940 and 1941.

The Trustees decided to invest approximately $5,000. of the Chest reserve funds in Defense Bonds and authorized the Treasurer to make the purchase.

The annual meeting was then adjourned and the regular Trustees meeting was held.

Norman Scribner, Boy Scout Executive, was a visitor at the meeting and was introduced to the Trustees.

The election of officers for 1942 was held and they are as follows: E. H. Graves, President; W. H.

Pruden, 1st Vice-President; Dr. J. W. Martin, 2nd Vice-President; T. J. Alford, Treasurer; H. B. Speight, Secretary.

President Graves took over office and conducted the rest of the meeting.

Members of the Civilian Defense Committee V. E. McDowell and C. W. Davis appeared before the Trustees and made a request for $500. to be used for necessary expenditures. After discussing the request pro and con the Trustees decided that the Committee should approach other sources as Chest funds were donated for charitable, philanthropic and character building work and there was a question whether this money should be used for other purposes. However, the Chest will reconsider the request if it is necessary.

The meeting then adjourned.

Those present at the meeting were: A. Meikle, G. R. Cross, Rev. G. L. Price, B. E. Speight, E. B. Manning, E. H. Graves, R. L. Edwards, J. B. Archer, Terry Draper, T. L. Martin, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. E. D. Harbour, Mrs. T. M. Jenkins, Miss Evelyn Mullen, Mrs. R. L. Towe, T. J. Alford, W. H. Pruden, Dr. J. W. Martin, F. M. Sherry and Mrs. W. A. Thorne. Also present were: Mrs. Clayton Gurley, Miss Madeline Lipscomb, Don P. Tillar and Norman Scribner.

Seaboard Faculty Will Present Play

Members of the Seaboard high school faculty are beginning rehearsals on a one-act play to be presented some time in February. The mountain-folk comedy entitled "August Angel," has been cast with the following teachers: Misses Eunice Stacey, Edith C. Taylor, Estelle Adams, and Marjorie Williams, Mrs. P. A. Bullock, and Principal F. O. Birdsall.

Plans are being made for a one-act high school play to be presented on the same night.
