IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our mother, Mrs. Mary Ada Tanner, who died Jan. 9, 1933)

Three little children wept when you went away,
But our weeping could not bring you back, not even another day,
God in His mercy knows best and He took you to rest,
Out of this world of pain and woe,
To heaven where sorrow they do not know.
And rest in peace and joy never cease,
Your work here on earth is done,
And victory you have won,
And the greatest joy we'll ever know

Is the day we are united again up there on the Golden Shore.

Your children,
Grace, James and Katherine Tanner.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our devoted mother, Mrs. J. J. Birdsong, who departed this life one year ago Feb. 6, 1941.

One long year ago, dear mother,
You did leave us here to mourn;
Made us all so sad and lonely,
Left our hearts with anguish torn;
Though you are sleeping, dear mother,
Where the golden waters flow;
And we know you are happy
In your beautiful heavenly home.
To those who have a mother,
Greet her with tender care,
For you will never know her value
Till you see her vacant chair.
But now you have gone to
A place of long sleep;
And the ones that you left
Can only think—and weep.
At the end of our life—
We can only pray
That we will all meet
Again and be happy and gay.
Oh, mother, no one knows how we miss you,
Many a tear we shed alone;
But we know you are up in heaven,
Waiting there to welcome your children home.
Your devoted children,
Mrs. Eddie Wilson, Mrs. M. M. Mayle, Mrs. M. P. Deberry, Mrs. A. B. McLeod, Miss Sallie Birdsong, W. J. Birdsong and J. M. Birdson.

In loving remembrance of our dear grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Birdsong, who departed this life one year ago Feb. 6, 1941.
Gone is the one we loved so dear;
Silent is the voice we love to hear,
'Tis sad, but true, I wonder why
The best are always the first to die.
She had a smile for everyone,
A heart as pure as gold;
