

The regular Saturday night square dance sponsored by Rosemary Recreation Club will go on as usual this week, beginning promptly at 8 p. m. this Saturday night and ending promptly at midnight. Music will be furnished by the Carolina Hillbillies. Admission is only twenty-five cents to both women and men. Spectators are charged the same. The dance is sponsored by Mrs. Eugene Blowe and Mrs. Grady King. More and more people including many high school students are attending the dances each week end. They have proved to be the most popular means of entertainment in the city.

Probably the happiest three men in town last Saturday were Ned Manning, former N. C. State athlete, Doc Weathers of Wake Forest, whose son, Harry, is Captain of the local Yellow Jax, and Virgil McDowell, Georgia Tech. grad. The reason my friends! State College walloped Carolina — Wake Forest handed it out to Clemson and how — and Georgia Tech, much to the disappointment of "Shag" Thorne and Heath Lee cracked dear old Duke. Such is life!

Saccharine-sweet to Junior's folks, She only smiles at prinnest jokes, She's wholesome as a soul could wish,

I'll bet she drinks just like a fish. Rusty

Roanoke Rapids High School Yellow Jax will clash with Scotland Neck High here on Friday night at Ledgerwood Park. The contest will start promptly at 8 p. m. under the flood lights. Despite the fact that the Jax have dropped every contest but one and that was the 7-7 tie to Littleton, I'll still stick along with the boys. I was talking with a group of them over at the Recreation club last Saturday night. I told them the following: "Drop all of your games except the one with Weldon High, but listen pals, if you drop that one, don't go down to the locker to dress, just keep on going. The spirit of Dick Brown, Husky Johnson, Lester "Torchy" Edmondson, Flip Edmondson, Troy Godman, Wilton Brown, Butler Brown, Fleet Sullivan, Chet Allsbrook, Snooks Matthews, and hundreds of others will rise up and haunt you to the end of your natural days."

After taking a walk around the sidelines at a Yellow Jacket football contest I swear I don't know what to think — there are more boys on the sidelines not trying to play football, than there are on the squad — I mean real huskies, still in Senior or Junior High — weighing around one hundred and fifty — or sixty or seventy pounds — but most of them with a gal by the hand — and with a "ZoOt Suit" on, and above all an Errol Flynn haircut. Well! Maybe it's a bit out of order, but if I was on the present Varsity Squad — If I couldn't have the local High School Band out for a between halves setto — I'd get coach Brickelmeyer to prevail on these "Juke Joint" hounds to have a red hot game of "drop the handkerchiefs" during the regular intermission. Quick, Alice, my smelling salts — it's too much for an old timer who liked to hear them grunt on a line smash. Dear! Dear!

Dopey Dan still with a bad case of the jitters after seeing Mr. Faircloth make a monkey out of Carolina with Doc Newton's age old "Here it is, here it ain't sneak play — Says Listen my brothers of the Football guild, I can't take but so much — so here 'tis, North Carolina over Davidson. Georgia over Florida, Duke over Maryland, N. C. State over Miami, Wake Forest over V. M. I., if Mr. Muiha still has a bad ankle, Virginia over W. & L., and Brother pass the sauce, Coach Brick will faint, Roanoke Rapids over Scotland Neck — I ain't got the heart to add any more."

Pickups 'n Putouts — Just got a letter from Genial George Gurley — He's still at Keesler Field, Miss . . . and going strong with his basic training . . . best joke of the war . . . the guy who brags about helping Uncle Sam by buying War Bonds . . . Oh Yeah! . . . He has the Uncle's interest at heart . . . The stock phrase used to be "How's your old man — Now, it's "How's your oil, man" — See you at the Scotland Neck-Jax tilt!

Levon Program

The Levon Theatre's program for next week starts off with Barbara Stanwyck and Gary Cooper in "Ball of Fire" showing Sunday and Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday brings "Affairs of Martha" starring Marsha Hunt and Barry Nelson. "This Above All" is booked for Thursday and Friday, featuring Tyrone Powers and Joan Fontaine. The regular double feature day, Saturday, brings Narrator in "United We Stand", and Johnny M. Brown in "The Silver Bullet," also Chapter 5 of "Sea Raiders."

Pitts Program

The program for the Pitts Theatre, Emporia, Va., is announced for the balance of this week and next today. Cary Grant appears for the last showing today, Thursday, in "Talk of the Town." Friday and Saturday Gene Autry appears in "Home In Wyoming." Ann Shirley is the star of "Unexpected Uncle" for the Sunday-only attraction on next week's program. Monday and Tuesday of next week brings Ann Sheridan in "Kings Row," and next Wednesday's double feature brings "Sons of the Seas," and "Dude Cowboy."

Mrs. Jimmie Vick spent last week with her husband in Charleston, S. C. She is planning to make her home there in the near future.

Misses Odessa Nethercutt and Edna Earl Wood returned to Portsmouth Sunday.

Episcopal Ladies To Sell Pansies On Armistice Day

Pansy plants will be on sale at the Episcopal Church on Armistice Day, Wednesday, November 11th, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., instead of on Wednesday, November 4th, as previously announced. The reason for postponing the sale of the pansies is due to the fact that the grower could not arrange for shipment until Armistice Day.

The sale will be under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church, and is a yearly undertaking with that group of ladies.

MONDAY NIGHT CLUB

The Monday Night Bridge Club which gives the first Monday in every month to the Red Cross, was entertained on Monday of this week by Mrs. Fannie Hayes. The early part of the evening was spent at the Red Cross Rooms and later they went to the home of Mrs. Hayes where a salad plate with tea was served for refreshments. The guests included: Mesdames H. S. Loy, Scott Benton, Julian Allsbrook, Howard Pruden, Carroll Wilson, Pendleton Grizzard, W. S. Dean, Allen Zollicoffer, Ned Manning, T. J. Alford, Rives Manning, J. M. C. Covington, Misses Emma Neal Covington, Susan Holliday, Elizabeth Griffiths, Ruth Transou, Elizabeth Clark and Winifred Beckwith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams spent last week-end with their daughter Miss Ruby Lee Williams, who is a student at St. Catharine's School near Richmond, Va.
