

HALIFAX MEN MAKING GOOD IN SERVICE

Residents of the Town of Halifax point with pride to the service record of many youths from that vicinity in various branches of the country's armed forces, and they may well afford to do so as a brief review of the records of the youths readily disclose. The number of men from Halifax serving the country, together with a part of their record, includes the following: Marvin Whitley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whitley has recently been promoted to sergeant. He is stationed at Fort Devins, Mass.

Spottswood Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butts, Sr. is with the Marines and is on a secret mission in the mountains.

Fletcher Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gregory has recently been made an instructor in the air corps. He is a first lieutenant and is stationed at Savannah, Ga.

Sam Gregory, another son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gregory is a first lieutenant also. Last week Mrs. Gregory received a telegram from him stating that he was well and safe. A few days later she received notice that he was "across" the location was of course not given.

Charles Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hale is now a sergeant and is with the Army Flying School in Midland, Texas.

Lacy Morriss is a sergeant and is in Fort Bragg. Lacy is the son of Mr. Robert Morriss.

Carroll Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Neil ranks as a sergeant and is at Camp Pickett, Va.

Charles Tillery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tillery is a sergeant and when last heard from was at the Marine Barracks, Charleston, S. C.

Don Campbell, son of Mrs. D. M. Campbell is a corporal and has been somewhere in Great Britain for several months. There are many other boys from near Halifax who have climbed in the army ranks; those above are from the town of Halifax.

David J. Millikin Funeral Is Held At Halifax Home

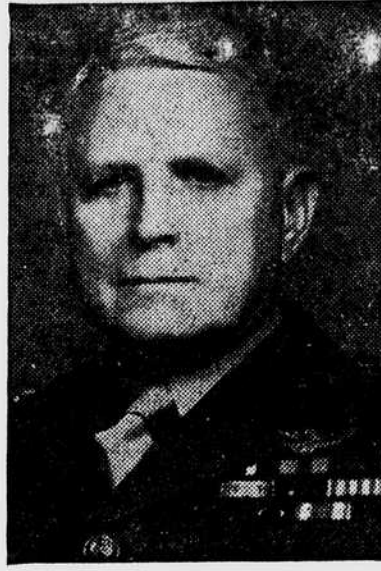

David J. Millikin, farmer, 77, died at his home near Halifax on Sunday morning, Nov. 1. He had been in declining health about 18 months, but had been confined to his bed only three days, and only a few hours before his death he talked freely and was conscious to the last.

Mr. Millikin was born near Crowells Cross Roads Nov. 2, 1865, and had lived in Halifax County all his life. He was a member of the Halifax Baptist Church of which he was a Trustee. He lived an active and valuable life, freely supporting all things of community interest and welfare; he served as a member of the Halifax School Board for a number of years, collected taxes for Halifax County several years, and was a Justice of the Peace for a number of years. Mr. Millikin was a highly respected citizen and was loved by all who knew him for his kindness and fair dealings with his fellowmen. The high esteem in which he was held was manifested by the numerous floral offerings and the numbers who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect.

The funeral services were conducted from the home by Rev. C. E. Crawford, Pastor of the Halifax Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. W. F. Walters of the Halifax Methodist Church and Rev. Finlator of the Weldon Baptist Church. Burial followed in the Stephenson Cemetery, being conducted by the members of the Royal White Lodge of Halifax, of which Mr. Millikin was an active member for 32 years.

Active pall-bearers were the following fellow Masonic lodge members: A. L. Hux, R. L. Applewhite, C. E. Shaw, W. R. Caudle, H. B. House and F. H. Gregory. Honorary pall-bearers were the following:

Leads Airmen

Major General Roy S. Geiger, U. S. Marine Corps officer in charge of land-based aircraft in the Solomon Islands area, attributes the amazing skill shown by American aviators to the personnel and equipment at his disposal.

C. H. Boykin, R. H. Wright, Moss Atkinson, W. G. Bass, J. A. Dickens, T. S. Dickens, J. G. Butts, W. A. Willcox, G. A. Hux, R. L. Dickens, Dr. F. W. M. White, W. L. Johnson, M. H. Mitchell, L. H. Pearce, F. H. Newsom, C. F. Marks, J. S. Pope, E. T. Clark, W. W. Anderson, Watson N. Sherrod, T. M. Cooper, and William Mann.

Mr. Millikin is survived by his widow, the former Sallie Twisdale and the following children: Mrs. H. E. Carlyle, Mrs. T. E. Owens, Mrs. Maggie M. Nethery, D. E. Millikin, Perry C. Millikin, R. W. Millikin, F. M. Millikin, and B. S. Millikin of Halifax, Mrs. Mollie M. Dickens, Mrs. Whitley Draper and Almond Millikin of Weldon, Staff Sgt. Louis P. Millikin of Fort Bragg and sixteen grandchildren.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. SARAH J. TURNER HELD

Mrs. Sarah J. Turner, 88, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Harris, on October 31st, after a lingering illness of four years. She had been a resident of Roanoke Rapids for the past 42 years, and was the widow of the late John F. Turner, who died here in 1912.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Harris, with Rev. Daniel Lane officiating. Interment followed in Roanoke Rapids Cemetery.

Mrs. Turner is survived by two daughters, Mrs. S. P. Harris of this city, and Mrs. Sarah E. Sancken of Chester, Pa. In addition she has three sons, Robert L. Turner of Roanoke Rapids, Willis Turner of Philadelphia, Pa., and Brentwood Turner of Raleigh; eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were: Eddie Baird, John Baird, Joe Hale, J. C. King, W. McFarland and Bennie Baird. Flower girls were Mesdames Joe Hale, Mae Medlin, Mary Collins, Della Pair, Eddie Baird, and Misses Hazel Baird and Gertie Williams.

Lottie Dickens Is Laid To Rest In Littleton

Final rites were held Saturday afternoon at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Littleton, for Miss Lottie Dickens, who died at the home of her brother, D. G. Dickens, Friday morning following a lingering illness.

Rev. D. D. Boone conducted the services, assisted by Rev. H. L. Davis, pastor of the Littleton Methodist Church.

Survivors are her mother, two sisters, Mrs. Charlie Cooley and Mrs. Edward Wilson, and one brother, D. G. Dickens, all of Littleton.

W. T. Duncan Laid To Rest Sunday; Funeral In City

Willie T. Duncan, age 54, died at the Roanoke Rapids Hospital on November 5 after an illness of four days. Funeral services were held on Sunday, November 8, from Williams Funeral Home. Rev. F. W. Haynie and Rev. Gordon Price officiated. Interment was in the Roanoke Rapids Cemetery.

Mr. Duncan was a member of the Petersburg Baptist Church. He followed the trade of electrician for a number of years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie J. Duncan; two half-sisters: Mamie Holloman of Wilmington, and Mollie Harlowe; and two brothers: Allie Duncan of Roanoke Rapids and Robert Duncan of Elgin, Ill.

Active pallbearers were: Mose Brickell, Sam Bunn, George Taylor, R. E. Cleaton, Ollie Mohorn, C. R. Collier, W. G. Alligood, B. J. Hux, Horace Spence and Wade H. Northington.

Mrs. L. J. Meade spent several days the past week in Sumter, S. Car., visiting her brother, R. H. Tucker.

Mrs. Joe Williams and Mrs. Butler Brown spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

Mrs. Raymond Luck of Washington, D. C., was called here Saturday on account of the death of her brother, Vernon, Buffalo.

MANY LADIES WERE AMAZED!

They told us an auto supply store was the last place they would expect to find

NYLON HOSE

BUT — they were also amazed at the wonderful quality — the wide range of shades we offered for only — to 1:65 Pr.

$1.15

Yes-sir, the war does odd things. When we were no longer able to sell tires we turned to other fields — and we may turn to others yet, — which only goes to show that it pays to drop in occasionally at the —

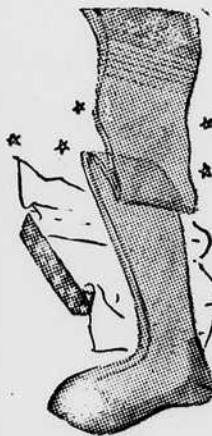

ECONOMY AUTO STORE

H. D. ALLEN, Mgr.

Rose's HOSE Week

Featuring VICTORY HOSE

For extra warmth and foot comfort, these All-American cotton lisle full fashioned hose are especially recommended. The quality is sheer.

Besides being appropriate for general wear, they are especially good to wear with sport clothes. Try a pair or two at only $1.00 pr.

COTTON or RAYON HOSE

For mothers who are doing their own work this fall . . . Why not try our practical cotton or rayon hose for wear around the house? Reasonably priced . . .

10c to 25c

MEN'S and BOYS' HOSE

For Dad and the boys at home, our hosiery counter offers some splendid values in ankle socks or full length hose.

Try Our ENGLISH RIBBED Socks in Plain Colors

25c

SOCKS and ANKLETS

Protect the health of school youngsters with sturdy, warm foot covering. Show colors on youngsters — Red, Royal Blue, Tan and White are exceptionally good.

Only 15c to 20c Pair

ROSE'S 5-10-25c STORE

Roanoke Rapids' Most Popular Store

Guaranteed to POP!

SOUTH AMERICAN YELLOW POPCORN 10-Ounce Can

10c

