

HOME ECONOMICS CLASSES HERE STUDY FIRST AID, HYGIENE, CARE OF SICK

One class of the third year Home Economics Department of Roanoke Rapids High School has completed two courses that are of vital importance in any home and community during war time and peace time.

These courses are: First Aid, Home Hygiene, and Care of the Sick. The classes were taught by Miss Frances Grant, school nurse. The National American Red Cross text books were used. All American Red Cross specifications were met.

The girls who were benefited by this project were: Hazel Baird, Gwendolyn Britt, Louise Crowder, Marie Garner, Margaret Haislip, Dorothy Hardison, Elizabeth Jenkins, Mary Jordan, Marie Joyner, Myrtle Jordan, Edna Earle Loomies, Christine Pleasants, Frances Rook, Nellie Roberson, Doris Reaves, Rachel Rogers, Ruth Simmons, Mary Alice Thortis, Martha Vincent, and Elizabeth Wall.

The other classes of the third year Home Economics will also have this opportunity.

Mrs. F. M. Parker Buried Tuesday At Enfield Home

Funeral services for Mrs. Frederick Marshall Parker were held in her home at Enfield Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. B. Peacock, assisted by Rev. E. D. Critcher. Burial followed in her family plot in Elmwood Cemetery. Mixed choirs of the town rendered favorite songs and active pallbearers were D. Mac Johnson, Jeff Whitehead, Dr. P. W. Joyner, J. M. Person, E. L. Petway, Ralph Willey, Sam Dunn, and H. C. Durham.

Mrs. Parker died suddenly in her home early Monday morning following a month's illness. She was born in Richmond, Va., being the former Hattie Branch, daughter of the late John and Anne Elizabeth Branch, but moved to Halifax County and Enfield in early years. She was married to J. R. Dickens in 1899 and he died in 1926. In 1937 she married Dr. Parker who died about two years afterwards. Mrs. Parker was a devoted member of Eden Methodist Church, all of the societies of that church and

Aurelian Springs To Hold School Fair Next Week

The Aurelian Springs School Fair will be held next week, November 19 and 20. Plans are underway to present to the public a bigger and better program than the very successful one of last year.

The fair will run through a day and two nights. The grand opening will come at 7:00 p. m., Thursday, November 19, continue the following afternoon, and close at midnight, Friday night, Nov. 20. The shows will open on the hour and every half-hour during the first night and during the afternoon of the 20th.

The main attraction Thursday night will be a womanless wedding, the performance to begin in the auditorium at 9 p. m. C. L. Kelly, Mr. Roger and Alpheus Carlisle, Zeb Denny, Raymond Shearin, J. R. Liles, James Frank Shaw, and Glenn Glasgow are among the men who are expected to participate in the ceremony.

The feature on Friday night will be a dance which will be sponsored by C. L. Kelly. The dance will be held in the gymnasium. At intermission the popularity queen is expected to be crowned queen of festivities.

Some of the attractions will be as follows: victory show, negro minstrel, crazy house, fortune telling, various kinds of skill games, and rides.

The fair, an annual function at the school, is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association for the purpose of securing funds for the operation of the extra-curricular program at the school. The fair proved popular last year with the many people who attended. Something over $100 was realized for the school.

the local Methodist Church and Sunday School.

Survivors are two children, by her first marriage, Mrs. John Finley White, of Enfield, and Everette Dickens, of Richmond, Va., an adopted daughter, Miss Marjorie Bennette Dickens, of Enfield, two grandsons, Johnnie White, of Enfield and Robert Dickens, of Richmond, Va.; several nieces and nephews.

LADIES NIGHT IS OBSERVED BY ROTARIANS

Hold Inter-City Meet At Weldon; Nichoson Is Guest Speaker

The Roanoke Rapids and Weldon Rotary Clubs held an inter-city ladies night meeting on November 9 at 6:30 p. m. at the Weldon Community House.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "America." Rev. D. P. Moore of Weldon gave the invocation, and Toastmaster Father Peter M. Denges of Roanoke Rapids was presented by Edgar F. Bounds, President of the Weldon club. Clarence E. King of Weldon then welcomed the guests and response was made by Mrs. William P. Taylor of Roanoke Rapids.

A turkey dinner was served, after which Henry G. Patterson and Edgar F. Bounds, presidents respectively of each club, gave recognition to past presidents. Mrs. Charles R. Daniel, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Selden, sang "This Is Worth Fighting For."

Charles R. Daniel of Weldon then introduced the guest speaker, A. A. Nichoson, Assistant to Vice-president and Personnel Officer of the Texas Company. His topic was "What We Are Defending." Mr. Nichoson is a veteran of World War I, and was honorably discharged from the army at the close of the war with the rating of Major. It is reported that his message was forceful and interesting.

The Roanoke Rapids Club presented Rev. Daniel Lane with a gift, and the Weldon Club presented Rev. D. P. Moore with a gift. Both pastors have accepted pastorates in other cities.

The meeting was closed with the singing of "God Bless America."

FELT SO BAD SHE HATED TO GET OUT OF CHAIR

Retonga Brings Prompt Relief After Many Other Means Had Failed, And She Wants Others To Know About Noted Medicine.

MRS. MOLLIE GRAVELEY

"Retonga proved to me that it is just as good as people say it is", declares Mrs. Mollie Graveley of 709 North Trade St., a well known and highly respected resident of Winston-Salem for more than thirty years. Discussing her happy relief through this noted gastric tonic and Vitamin B-1 medicine Mrs. Graveley states:

"I felt so nervous and rundown that I was almost completely discouraged. My food would sour in my stomach and form gas until I could hardly breathe. My head often ached so I felt like the top of it would simply come off. I had to take strong medicines all the time, and my limbs ached so bad that I did not feel like stirring out of my chair. My nerves were at a high pitch, and every day seemed to find me feeling a little worse.

"Retonga gave me perfectly grand relief. The sour indigestion is relieved, and food tastes right again. I have not had a headache in some time, the constipation is relieved, and my nerves are so calm that it is a perfect joy to sleep as well as I do now. I am one of the most grateful women in North Carolina for this grand Retonga."

Thousands praise Retonga. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Rosemary Drug Co. (Adv.)
