

11 FROM HERE TRAINING FOR DEFENSE JOBS

Eleven young men and women from Roanoke Rapids and vicinity are training for jobs in defense work through the facilities of the NYA, according to announcement made this week by Mrs. Clalee M. Dunnagan, who works the Greenville area for the NYA.

Boys from the city now stationed at the NYA Resident Center at Durham, include: Eddie Wilson Warrick, Arthur Dorrough, Walter O. Reed, Buck Wright and W. L. James.

The following three young ladies from here are training at the Scotland Neck Resident Center: Katie Gregory, Edith Keeter and Nancy Barkley, while Misses Maybelle Connor and Jenny Bell Wood are stationed at the Resident Center in Greenville.

All of the boys are taking welding and machine shop work, while the girls have selected aircraft woodwork, machine shop work and radio for their careers. A dozen or more courses designed to skill workers for defense projects are offered by the NYA, and applicants have a wide choice in training for jobs.

The NYA opened an office in the city some three weeks ago under the direction of Mrs. Dunnagan. It is located next door to the Peoples Theatre. Office hours are maintained there all day Wednesday, and until noon Saturday. Interviews may be arranged either of these days.
