The regular Saturday Night Square Dance will be called off this week end due to the Auxiliary Police Jamboree to be held at the Armory on Saturday night. Square Dance Chairman, Mr. Eugene Blow made the following statement regarding calling off the Recreation Club Dance. "We always try to co-operate fully with any worthwhile undertaking here in the City, due to the importance of the Auxiliary Police, we feel that everybody should get in back of them, and help make their show a success" -- The Regular Recreation Club Dance will start back on the following Saturday Night Dec. 5th.

The Auxiliary Police unit of the Roanoke Rapids Civilian Defense unit will stage a benefit show at the local Armory, on this Saturday Night November 28th. Just about everything in the book, from Bingo to Square Dancing will entertain you from 8 p. m. until Midnight. Admission is only ten cents. Do your bit, back your Auxiliary Police unit.

To insistent inquiries about a second front Lt. Col. Harold Hinton, public relations man for the Army's European theatre, repeats this story:

A beautiful young girl dreamed that a sinister but handsome dark haired man appeared at her bedside. Before she could protest, he yanked her from the satin covers and carried her away to a luxurious limousine waiting at the door. Hurling her into the back seat, he drove swiftly into the country, drawing up at last in a secluded, moon-flooded lane. The man turned and stared menacingly at the beautiful girl. "What are you going to do now?" she asked quivering. "How should I know?" he retorted. "It's your dream."

A private in the Army Air Corp recently was astonished to receive the following letter from his mother, who obviously is unfamiliar with military life:

"Dear Son:
 "I was glad to hear that you have been "having K. P." lately! You always were the greatest boy for cooking little snacks between meals and especially late at night. But then you were real good about tidying up afterwards. So I guess there isn't another boy in the Army who will get more pleasure out of those Kitchen Privileges. But be sure to leave no dirty dishes around for the cook to have to wash."

Dopey Dan staggered into the local Juke Joint with a wild glare in his eyes -- Dopey was in a jitter after reading about the Georgia-Auburn upset, and the wild affair over at Duke Stadium. "Roll out the barrels" roared Dopey "Set 'em up, I'll take Georgia over Georgia . . . let's leave the Tech out of the whole affair . . . and I'll end the season with picking Duke over Florida Naval Training" . . . Dopey wobbled into a booth and passed out.

Former High School Footballers here in town, didn't get to the fifty yard line with their efforts to line up a game with the present Yellow Jackets. The idea originated with some of the former stars, with the idea in mind to present the gross gate to the 1942 Jackets so they could have a "Feed" or buy football monograms. It probably could have been worked up into a good drawing card, and we can say here and now, that the former stars were really willing to sacrifice something -- none of them are in shape, and it would be impossible to get in shape within a week's time. Anyway the boys showed a willing spirit. Long live the Spirit!

Pickups 'n Putouts:
 If the Alumni-Jax game had been carded . . . the former stars would have presented a flea weight backfield in Chet Allbrook and "Chippy" Simms at halves, "Lefty" Everett at quarter, and Jerry Brown at full . . . anyway maybe a good basketball game can be arranged . . . Jimmy Hudson, former Romanco third sacker in town on leave . . . so's George Sullivan former High School athlete . . . so's Randall White, former High star . . . Zeke Webster who used to hold down a great Tackle position on Jax teams . . . and who was on the U. S. S. Boise . . . Yeah! they got six Jap ships in twelve minutes, has landed in Philly . . . and it is rumored will be home within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrett were visitors in Richmond last Wednesday.

LET US MAKE THIS A GOOD CHRISTMAS

Our chain of joyous, untroubled Christmases is broken. This Christmas will be different . . . but we can still make it a good one.

All that Christmas means to us is in peril today and may be lost to us unless we dedicate ourselves wholly to the task of winning the war.

We must preserve our Christmas spirit, so it will shine out for all the world to see. This Christmas, of all we have ever known, must be a good Christmas.
