

EPISCOPAL TO HOLD SPECIAL XMAS SERVICE

There will be Divine services at All Saints Episcopal Church on Christmas Day, Saturday, December 25th, at 11 a. m. Holy Communion will be administered. All confirmed members of the Church are expected to receive communion in accordance with the ancient unwritten law and practice of the Church that all communicants receive Communion on the three major Feast Days of the Christian Church, namely Christmas, Easter and Pentecost. Services will be held Sunday, St. Stephen's Day as usual, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Levon Program

The Levon Theatre in Weldon, today announces their program for this week-end, which will include their Christmas Eve and Christmas Day presentation; also their bookings for the first four days of next week.

Featured Friday and Saturday of this week will be a double-feature. Buster Crabbe is the star of "The Renegade" for the first picture, while Patsy Kelly is featured in "Danger, Women At Work" for the second bill of the day. The Levon will observe special holiday hours on both days, with shows, starting promptly at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and running continuous throughout the last evening show.

Sunday brings Ann Miller and Rochester in "What's Buzzin' Cousin." Edward G. Robinson and Margaret Chapman are co-stars of "Destroyer" for the Monday-Tuesday bill on next week's program. Mary H. Hughes and Leon Errol are co-featured in "Follow The Band" for the Wednesday-Thursday bill on next week's program.

The First Sneeze Is Your Warning

That the disagreeable COLD ENEMY is approaching you, which robs you of Energy and vitality and makes you a victim of INFLUENZA and PNEUMONIA. Each year millions of people suffer from head and chest cold annoyances, that represent not only unpleasantness, but loss of time, from both work and social obligations.

MANY thousand deaths each year could be prevented, if people would take necessary precaution to check common Colds in its early stages. KOLD-TON checks coughs due from Colds very quickly. KOLD-TON breaks loose cold in chest. KOLD-TON is a Mild Laxative, thereby cleansing the system of the Cold Poison.

KOLD-TON is pleasant to take and may be taken safely by both Adults and Children.

KOLD-TON does not contain quinine, and will not cause any buzzing in the Ear or bad after effect. KOLD-TON is a liquid preparation, giving quick and speedy relief to cold sufferers.

The New Year's program at the Levon will be announced in next week's issue of the Herald.

DIES AT WELDON

Weldon.—Edwin Clark died Monday after an illness of a few months.

Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday at 3 p. m. by the Rev. E. D. Weathers, assisted by the Rev. W. W. Finlator.

Mr. Clark was born in Southampton County, Va., on February 14, 1856. He had lived in Weldon for 65 years and was in the mercantile business. He was married 63 years ago to Eunice T. Jordan of Greenville County, Va. Surviving are his wife; the following children, Colie, Edwin, Elliott and Harry Clark, all of Weldon, Dr. Robert Clark of Chapel Hill, Eunice Jordan Clark and Mrs. Grady Edwards of Seaboard, Mrs. Frank Saunders of Lumberton, Elizabeth Jane Clark; seven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

U. D. C. MEETS

Miss Katie W. Riddick and Mrs. C. F. Musselman were hostesses to the Frank M. Parker Chapter, U. D. C. in the home of Mrs. Ira D. Wood in Enfield, Thursday afternoon. Miss Riddick, president, presided. Mrs. Waverly White led the devotional. Correspondence was read, and reports given. Plans for next year were discussed. Two Christmas readings were given by Miss Osee Mac Johnson. Christmas packages for the shut-ins of the town were brought to the meeting to be distributed this week. Birthday gifts were also brought and sent to Miss Bell Whitaker, oldest member of the Chapter, and one of the oldest residents of the town, who was celebrating her birthday that day, and on account of the snow and cold weather was unable to attend the meeting. At the close of the meeting the hostesses served a dessert course.

LET'S TALK TURKEY

Our supply of turkey is limited. Yet, we have good selections of chickens and other suitable meats for your holiday dinner, wartime considered.

We, along with other patriotic food retailers have foregone a large part of our usual supplies of turkey to Uncle Sam — so that he can provide Christmas Dinners for the members of our Armed Forces, no matter where they may be.
