

AUX. POLICE GIVE DINNER

The Roanoke Rapids Auxiliary Police, of which W. A. Thorne is captain, recently gave a barbecue and chicken dinner in the new Ever-Ready building at Second and Jackson streets. Honor guests at the dinner were the wives of the members of the organization.

When the auxiliary police was first organized it had about 80 members, but due to the war this membership has decreased to about 31, all of which are active. The organization has at various times raised money by giving dances and other entertainment, all of which has been contributed to the Boy and Girl Scouts and the Red Cross.

Following are the active members:

W. A. Thorne, Captain; T. F. Brown, Walter Baugham, S. W. Butler, K. L. Bryant, Harold Bloom, C. F. Brigman, H. E. Blowe, E. E. Collins, H. E. Cameron, R. L. Cole, T. H. Cooke, R. O.
