Harrison - Robertson

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robertson, of Littleton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Virginia O'Neal, to Herbert Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Harris, of Littleton. The wedding occurred July 15 at the home of Rev. J. F. Roach, who performed the ceremony. Mrs. Harrison is a graduate of Aurelian Springs High School, class of '42, and Mr. Harris is a graduate of Littleton High. The couple will make their home in Littleton.

Leatherneck washing machine

U. S. Marine Corps Photo

Laundry problems on Pacific outposts are not as difficult as one might expect. An example of Leatherneck ingenuity is demonstrated above by Corp. Billy G. Alexander of Amarillo, Tex. The clothes are placed in the half-barrel, with soap and water, and the plunger does the work. When an especially good job is desired, a fire is built under the barrel. The power? Oh, yes, propulsion is supplied by a hand-made windmill.

FASHIONS IN REVIEW

By MARGARET TUCKER

"THE CONVENTION"

Not the Democratic or Republican, but a different type of presentation of the designers showing forth their latest creations . . . however, the idea was very timely and was carried forth with all the trimmings.

"YOUR OVERSEAS GUY OR GAL"

Some of our "fems" have certainly been lucky lately . . . Mrs. Elsie Pair Hurshey whose sister is a nurse in the European War has received a pair of all leather sandals also some very nice articles of jewelry. Then Mary Dickens Burton whose "hubby" is "over there" has been the recipient of a nice collection of costume rings. They are all very pretty!

"SANDALS AGAIN"

The craze for a new pair of sandals hit town again so the "fems" found their answer in a white creation which looks like it has more durability than any I have seen this summer.

"HAIR ORNAMENTS"

The cutest idea of a hair dress involves the ever familiar bunches of flowers . . . instead of two identical flowers. Why not, for a festive variation, try one color over one ear and another color over the other. You can match the dress you are wearing better. Irma Lee Grant has worn this with a very pleasing result!

"ON THE CLOTHES LINE"

We put Beaunie Holliday for her attractive ensemble of aqua and brown . . . Then we put as the "lady waiting" . . . Mrs. Maybelle Wright Fecteau who has held down a responsible job, is a nurse's aid, weekly goer to Prayer for boys service and Red Cross Room. May we have more like Mrs. Fecteau and the ones thus far named. The fashion spotlight centers on these last week: Mary Lynch, Margaret Williams, Margie Hudson Taylor, Mary Louise Fitts, Patsy Smith, Derith Morgan Stewart, Franklin Babson, Chester Wilkins, L. W. Pullen and D. L. Finch. Remember to buy Bonds first.

Miss Ethel Pilley, of Tarboro, is spending this week with Miss Charlotte Ann Hargrove, in Weldon.

Miss Lorraine Shell has accepted a position in Washington, D.C.

NOTICE!

We appreciate your business of a few weeks ago. However, the names and negatives of pictures taken June 30 were lost. Please go to Mrs. Wrightmeyer's for a resitting,
