He has been in service since March 1942 and is a former employe of the Halifax Paper Co.

Bobbitt - Bennett

The marriage of Miss Margaret Frances Bennett to Cpl. William Brown Bobbitt, Jr., of Littleton, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, June 19, at 4:30 o'clock, in the First Methodist Church with Rev. L. A. Tilley officiating, assisted by Rev. W. R. Stevens of the Rosemary Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was used.

The chancel of the church was decorated with tall standards holding lighted Cathedral candles. Tall baskets of glads with ferns were arranged to form a lovely background for the wedding party. Traditional wedding music was rendered by Billy Waters. Miss Mary Louise Pitts, vocalist, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a semi-formal wedding gown of white net and lace over taffeta, made redingote style, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, edged with lace, elbow length sleeves, tight fitting bodice with lace inserts, and bouffant skirt with panels of lace. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion fell from a bandeau of orange blossoms. She wore her mother's pearls, and she carried a spray of white roses on a prayerbook, given to her by the groom.

Miss Gay Hayes of Winston-Salem served the bride as maid of honor. Miss Hayes wore a dress of light blue lace and net. The bodice was of lace with net ruffles outlining the V neckline and waist, and the gathered skirt was of net. Her bandeau and nosegay were of mixed flowers. The honorary brides maids were Miss Ethel Bobbitt, of Portsmouth, sister of the groom, Misses Evelyn Maddrey, Doris Bridgers, Margaret Brown, Corrine Satterthwaite, and Charlotte Grant. They wore dresses of pastel shades and wore flowers in their hair. Miss Barbara Ann Brown was flower girl and wore a dress of white organdy trimmed in lace. Edward Moseley was ringbearer.

Jack Bobbitt of Littleton, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Donald Bennett, the bride's brother, Johnny Aycock and Billy Myrick of Littleton, and Sgt. Stanley Smith of Raleigh.

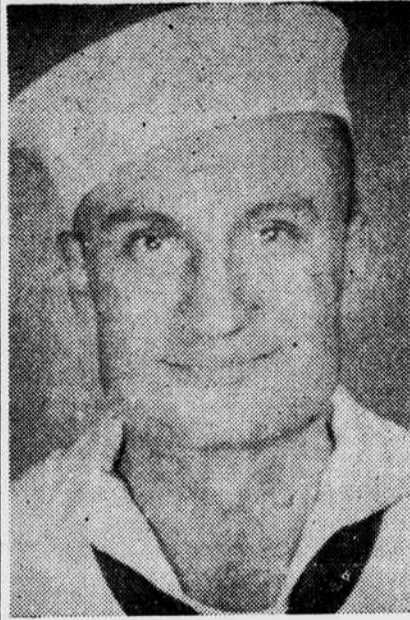

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jennings Bennett of this city, attended Roanoke Rapids High School and High Point College. Mrs. Bobbitt plans to return to High Point in September.

The groom was attending Roanoke Rapids High School at the time of his induction in the U. S. Army. He recently returned to the states after 12 months in the European Theatre. Cpl. Bobbitt is the son of Mrs. Bryant Reid of Portsmouth.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of black chiffon with a white lace collar and a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother wore a dress of black chiffon with pearls and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. J. W. King, grandmother of the groom, was attired in black and wore a corsage of gardenias. For traveling, the bride wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jen-
